VOL. XXXX. OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 20, 1895. NO. 44.

A FERRY TRAGEDY.

J. T. Chamberlain of Alameda Shoots Himself on the Newark.

SCARE AMONG THE PASSENGERS

He Put a Bullet in His Brain as the Boat Reached the Slip.

DESPONDENCY THE CAUSE.

He Is Said to Have Been at One Time in the Stockton Asylum.

J. T. Chamberlain, a dairyman of Fruitvale, shot himself in the head on the lower deck of the narrow gauge ferry boat Newark this morning at 9:30 o'clock as the boat was nearing the San Francisco side of the bay. The suicidal deed was accomplished so quickly that before the passengers had recovered from the shock caused by the pistol shot Chamberlain lay prostrate on the deck with the blood pouring from an ugly wound. The pistol was grasped in one hand.

Physicians who were among the crowd of passengers went to the relief of the wounded man, but they pronounced his injuries as surely fatal. Temporary assistance was given him and such medical aid as could be furnished at the time was afforded until the boat reached the slip. A telephone call brought the ambulance from the city receiving hospital where Chamberlain was quickly taken. Further examination showed that the wound was fatal beyond a doubt.

The shooting caused great excitement on the boat as a large number of the passengers were gathered at the bow, awaiting the docking of the steamer in the slip. Chamberlain seemingly took advantage of the absence of people from the stern to accomplish the act, and just as the boat had touched the slip the bullet went crashing into his brain, entering the brain near the left temple.

As soon as the receiving hospital was reached Chamberlain's clothing was searched to ascertain his identity. Cards and business documents revealed his calling. A box of cartridges from which six shells had been taken to load the pistol was found. The weapon was a new one. It apparently was used for the first time when the despondent dairyman committed his desperate act.

HIS PERSONALITY.

Chamberlain is about 35 years of age. He is the owner of the Jersey Dairy Farm, situated east of Fruit Vale. He has resided there for the past three months, having purchased the place or an interest in it, from W. Forep.

Chamberlin came here from Stockton, where, for a long time, he had been a farm hand. He is a widower and has children. His mother is now Mrs. Hill and resides on Twenty-third avenue.

The suicide has a half brother named William Mill, who was formerly a circulator connected with the Alameda Telegram.

For some time past Chamberlain has been despondent, though no reason can be assigned for his depression. It is said that Chamberlain was once an inmate of an insane asylum at Stockton.

At last accounts Chamberlain was sinking rapidly.

The remains will be brought to the city.

STOPPED WHEN HALF WAY

Unsatisfactory Result of the First of the Trial Races.

The Defender Was Doing Well and Then Suddenly Stopped.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—The first of the trial races between the yachts Defender and Vigilant to decide which shall contest with the Valkyrie III. for America's Cup was sailed today.

The course was ten miles south southwest from Sandy Hook lightship, which means a beat to and around a mark boat off Asbury Park.

The wind was light and the sky overcast.

The Vigilant crossed the line at 11.48 and the Defender at 11:49.

AT THE STAKEBOAT.

HIGHLANDS NAVESINK, 1:30 P.M. The Defender rounded the stakeboat at 1:09:20, and soon squared away under all sail for the run home.

The Vigilant will be about a mile behind. The wind is still steady from the southwest.

The Defender a minute after rounding brought out her spinnaker and balloon jib and went tearing along for the finish line at steamboat pace.

The Vigilant rounded the mark at 1:14:37, 5 minutes 15 seconds behind the Defender.

THE OFFICIAL TIMES.

SCOTLAND LIGHTSHIP, Aug. 20, 1:27 P. M.—Following are the official times

Preparatory signal displayed 11.35 A. M.

Starting gun fired 11 45.

Yachts crossed the line at the following times. Vigilant, 11:45:56, Defender, 11:46:53

Thus the Vigilant had a lead of 57 seconds at the start.

A GOOD LEAD.

HIGHLANDS NAVESINK, Aug. 20.—At about 1:50 P. M., or about 40 minutes after rounding the mark, it was estimated the Defender had a lead of twelve minutes.

1:52 P. M.—The committee's boat has just signalled that the course is to be sailed over twice.

2:05 P. M.—The Defender has turned the mark and is standing off again on the starboard tack on a beat to the outer mark the second time.

The Vigilant rounded the lightship at 2:08:30, only four minutes behind the Defender, having pulled up 1m. 17s. on the run home. After rounding the Vigilant stood away after the Defender on a starboard tack.

2:40 P. M.—The Defender is now running back towards Sandy Hook. The race has been called off.

WHY WAS IT?

SANDY HOOK, Aug. 20.—The race ended unsatisfactorily, as the Defender withdrew after making one round.

As the Defender left for the anchorage a reporter asked what the trouble was.

Captain Haff answered: "No trouble."

The inference drawn by the watermen was that the Defender had strained something or was afraid of doing so.

When the Vigilant was about a mile and a half on the second round the committee's boat stopped her and she did not finish.

AGREED ON A FIGURE.

Mrs. Simmonds Will Receive $11,500 From the Railroad.

Her Husband Was Killed Last October at the Webster Street Accident.

Mrs. Lucille Simmonds, in behalf of herself and seven minor children, has effected a compromise with the Southern Pacific Company in her damage suit to recover $50,000 for the death of her husband, M. G. Simmonds, who was drowned in the narrow gauge draw bridge disaster last October.

The suit was on the calendar in Judge Greene's court this morning and Attorney Samuel Shortridge appeared in behalf of Mrs. Simmonds while the railroad company was represented by A. A. Moore and J. C. Martin.

Judge Greene granted a motion to dismiss the case on the representations of the counsel that a satisfactory settlement had been reached out of court. The amount of the compromise which will be paid to Mrs. Simmonds is $11,500. She agrees to accept that without costs of court.

Simmonds was a passenger in one of the cars of the narrow gauge train which was derailed at the southern end of the Webster street draw bridge on October 2d of last year. The car he was in was precipitated into the estuary and Simmonds was drowned before the rescuing parties could reach him. He was 47 years old and left a family consisting of his widow and seven children, namely, Alice, Mandeville, Walter, Irene, Ruby, Raymond and Levings. A. G. Gurnett was appointed guardian ad litem of the children while the case was pending in court. Suit was brought only a few months ago. Negotiations looking toward a satisfactorily settlement without litigation were pending for a long time after the accident.

OUT OF THE ORDINARY.

A Number of Important Cases Called Before Judge Wood.

Emma Quigley and two men were the only occupants of the Police Dock this morning, although several cases where the offenders had been released on bail were called.

Thomas Dolan had a row with Daniel Murphy last night at the corner of Fifth and Chestnut streets. In the course of the struggle he struck his opponent in the leg with a pitchfork. Murphy had him arrested on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon and he was brought into court this morning. He had not secured legal aid and asked that his preliminary examination be continued until August 24th.

The case of Louis A. Muhlner, charged with murder, was called. Muhlner had not been brought into the court room, as it was impossible for his attorney to be present. At the request of Prosecuting Attorney Melvin the matter was continued until tomorrow.

C. E. Stewart, charged by County Clerk Frank Jordan with mutilating public records, occupied the dock. His preliminary examination was set for Friday.

Jos. Balliett had slept in a barn. He claimed to have no home and, though he pleaded guilty the court suspended judgment.

Ex-Police Officer Thomas Boyer was fined $10 for disturbing the peace of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Cashin.

In the cases of Louis Azuer, John Schlon and B. F. Hensley, charged with selling liquor on the boats without having taken out licenses the motion for a new trial was denied. The defendants intended to make a test case and, accordingly Azuer was fined $25 and the passing of sentence on the others was continued to September 3d. Azuer gave notice of appeal.

DESTROYING EVIDENCE.

An Incendiary Fire at the Holmes Castle in Chicago.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Discoveries made by the police today lead to the belief that last night's fire in the "Castle" of H. H. Holmes was of incendiary origin.

Several people living near the burned building saw two men enter the house shortly before the fire broke out and leave with great haste.

A search revealed half a can of gasoline in a secret stairway.

THE DEMOCRATS.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Aug. 20.—District and other preliminary meetings of the Democratic State Convention were held here today preparatory to assembling the convention at 10 A. M. to-morrow.

Senator Brice is making the fight of his life for a platform in harmony with the views of President Cleveland.

He is not taking an aggressive part in the fight over the nomination, but is interested in the organization so as to control the nomination of the committees on credentials and resolutions.

He is believed to have a majority of delegates, but the free silver men claim 304 delegates, or enough to make trouble if no concession is made to them.

Today Senator Brice, ex-Governor Campbell and other leaders dined with John H. Thomas and T. H. Anderson and a compromise was outlined.

Senator Brice is to be temporary chairman of the convention and his speech is sure to be for "honest money."

Immediately after its delivery tomorrow reports from the committee on credentials will be received, the majority for seating the contesting Brice men and the minority for seating the free silver contestants.

Just before Senator Brice arrived at 11 A. M. the city was flooded with dodgers bearing the following resolution, adopted at a meeting of the silver delegates:

"We favor the immediate restoration of the law providing for the free coinage of silver coins and their use without discrimination as provided for in the constitution."

The silver men pledged Senator Brice that they had no fight on him, but they wanted this plank.

The Senator and his friends are non-committal.

On the arrival of the train bearing ex-Governor Campbell at noon Campbell badges were distributed broadcast in anticipation of his nomination.

All the leaders and delegates arrived today.

TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 19.—The Bank of Tacoma, formerly the Tacoma Trust & Savings Company, this morning made an assignment to its creditors.

Its stated lists show cash on hand $444 18; loans $279,072 50; total liabilities $378,919 64, of which $238,664.77 is city money. The bank has long been regarded as insecure.

A MARINE COLLISION.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 19.—The steamer Ocean Wave on her way from Astoria to this city collided with a sail boat containing five persons near Stella, Wash., about 1 o'clock this morning.

The sail boat upset and two of the occupants, John Weatherwax and Ed Wagner, were drowned.

The other three, Milton Smith, Ed Avery and Henry Brown, were rescued.

CHANGED THE RECORDS

County Clerk Jordan Charges C. E. Stuart With Felony.

County Clerk Jordan swore to a complaint this morning charging Cornelius E. Stuart with felony in mutilating the records of the office by changing the signature Stuart had made to a marriage license affidavit in the county clerk's office. Jordan says he proposes to press the charge in the light of yesterday's developments which prove that Stuart had an ulterior purpose in the bungling attempt he made to change the records

WITNESSES SENT FOR.

The County Shortage Will Be Investigated Next Thursday.

Ex-Collector Rosborough Will Turn in All His Tax Receipts.

A large number of subpoenas have been issued from the District Attorney's office for witnesses to appear before the grand jury on Thursday to testify in the matter of the tax collector's office deficit. The subpoenas were issued late yesterday afternoon and were placed in the hands of Detective Herbert to serve. District Attorney Snook declined to give the names of the witnesses, but it is known that in the list are a number of county officials and ex-officials who are interested in the solving of the doubt that surrounds the tampering with the books of the tax collector's office to conceal the deficit that has been located.

The grand jury decided to get to work at once on that matter. The District Attorney is prepared to furnish a large amount of evidence, documentary and otherwise and he will be backed with the results of a considerable amount of labor performed by County Expert Davis, who is ready to go before the grand jury. The only material not yet at hand is the collection of tax receipt stubs in the possession of ex-Tax Collector Rosborough. These, however, are at the service of the grand jury and the expert as soon as the demand is made for them.

Auditor Myron Whidden, who will be a witness before the grand jury, is recovering from a serious attack of tonsilitis and fever which has confined him to his bed for a week past. He is still very weak, but expects to be able to make an appearance at his office tomorrow. J. J. Hanifin Jr., his deputy, said today that his chief was much improved and hoped to be able to return to his desk very soon.

There appears to be considerable feeling over the charges and countercharges that have been evolved during the publicity that has been given to the scandal. Many who are familiar with some of the conditions which have existed at the seat of county government declare that the investigation by the grand jury will be a very warm one. It is said that both sides in the matter are loaded with material and they propose to use it to the best advantage when the county's inquisitors commence to probe the scandal.

Tax Collector Barber is anxious to have the matter settled. He is the only one of all the interested parties who has suffered. He has paid $600 into the county treasury to cover a portion of the deficit, which has not been located, and he wants to find where the blame for it lies.

This afternoon a conference was held between Foreman Osgood, Expert Snow of the grand jury and County Expert Davis regarding the clerical work necessary to put everything in shape for the investigation on Thursday.

At 12 o'clock today only one additional body had been recovered, that of E. W. Edwards, a Denver butcher.

This is the thirteenth body found and identified.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The California System Ably Detailed in the Chronicle.

The San Francisco Chronicle today devotes twelve pages to the California public school system, which it characterizes as the crowning glory of the Golden State. The article is the most complete of its kind ever published in California. It is full of information regarding the education interests of this State and is valuable as a record. The history of the system is in detail from its inception to the present time. The article is richly illustrated and the wealth and variety of architecture employed in the various schools as shown by the pictures, indicates what pride the people take in their educational institutions.

The article is a valuable one for many reasons and will be read with interest in every part of the State. It was compiled by Taliesin Evans of this city and is a splendid evidence of that gentleman's ability in the literary field. It shows the interest he takes in the subject of education and also the splendid fund of information he possesses on all matters relating to the State.

BLOWN TO ETERNITY

An Explosion Deals Out Death at the Carnegie Works.

EIGHT KILLED AND MANY HURT.

The Workmen Mowed Down as if They Were Shot.

WOMEN CRAZED BY SORROW

Pathetic Scene When the News of the Disaster Spread.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 20.—An explosion at furnace H of the Carnegie Steel Company at Braddock at 5 o'clock this morning killed six men, fatally injured three more and seriously burned fifteen more, and destroyed $30,000 worth of property.

All the killed and injured are Hungarians except James Harrison, the foreman.

The names of the killed are Steve Havrola, Joseph Tuckav, Joseph Conp, John Meka, John Pookopeve and John Gnicha.

The explosion was due to a "hang" in the furnace, which suddenly was loosened and dropped into the molten metal below, generating an immense quantity of gas so suddenly that it could not escape by ordinary means.

A few minutes before the explosion one of the top fillers dumped a barrow of marcrial into the hell of the furnace, which he had forgotten to raise.

This clogged the top of the furnace and prevented the gas escaping.

A gang of sixteen men, in charge of James Harrison, were sent at once to the top of the furnace to remove the obstruction.

All were closely crowded around the hell of the furnace removing the material when there was a terrific explosion and the men at the barrows, tools and material were hurled in all directions.

FELL AS IF SHOT.

Flames, deadly gases and smoke belched from the furnace top and the gang of men fell as if shot.

One was thrown from the top of the furnace, along the metal roadway to the elevator shaft, down which he fell, and striking on a car, was cut in two.

A relief crew quickly went to the top of the furnace, where lay fifteen men bleeding, torn, burned and dying.

ROYAL Baking Powder Absolutely Pure

Flame and smoke were still coming from the furnace and the work of rescue was dangerous in the extreme.

Three men died before they reached the bottom of the elevator shaft, and the other six died between 5 and 8.

The contents of the furnace were scattered hundreds of yards around the furnace, falling in all parts of the yard, cutting and burning about ten men working below.

The carpenter shop 200 yards from the furnace was soon in flames and was destroyed.

If the furnace should have to be rebuilt the total damage will be $30,000.

The homes of the killed and injured were near the furnace and the streets in that vicinity were filled with a mass of frantic, half-crazy women and children.

Of the injured it is now thought five will die.

They are John Warha, John Skonda, Mike Jura, Mike Kapenos, Andrew Drotine.

The following seriously injured with probably recovery: John Wagasky, John Seebroreay, James Harrison.

Two of the injured died in the hospital, making the number of dead eight. They were burned so badly as to be beyond recognition.

FEW MEN TO FEED.

Only Fifty Prisoners Are Now Confined in the County Jail.

Small Fees Lead to a Cessation of Hostilities by the Constables.

Fifty prisoners answer to the roll call in the county jail. This is a falling off of 100 per cent in the number cared for by the county before the new fee bill went into operation cutting the recompense of constables making arrests. The bill is being vigorously fought by the constables, but meanwhile they are not as vigorous in bringing to book the numerous tramps that infest the community. The constables claim that in many instances the cost for arresting tramps and taking them to jail exceeds the amount allowed under the law. They are therefore relaxing their vigils somewhat until the Supreme court decides on the case, which has been brought to determine the legality of the act.

Jailer Will Lane said today that there are fewer prisoners confined in the Alameda county jail now than for years past. He attributes it to the fact that constables are not so hot on the trail of the "weary walkers" as when the fees were a little more fat.

Only Circumstantial Evidence So Far Against Muhlner.

The Tale Retold at the Investigation of Coroner Baldwin.

The inquest over the remains of the late Jennie Lewis was held last night by Coroner Baldwin in the rooms over the morgue. There was a large attendance, among the throng being friends and parents of the deceased.

Mrs. Marion Lewis, the mother of the dead girl, testified that she was not aware of the fact that her daughter Jennie had kept company with gentlemen. She said that Muhlner had made Jennie a present of a dress on her birthday in March last.

A. C. Lewis, father of the girl, repeated the facts of his connection with the case since he heard of his daughter's shooting.

Mrs. E. R. Redmayne testified to having aided in taking care of Miss Lewis after the shooting.

The testimony of C. H. Miller showed that he had gone to parties with Jennie, but that he was at home from 10 A. M. Monday, the 10th inst. until he was notified of Jennie's shooting in the evening.

Joseph Little testified that he had seen Dr. Mooar and Miss Lewis on the front steps of Mooar's house and had seen Dr. Mooar start to go away and heard Miss Lewis ask him if he were going. It was about thirty minutes after that he had heard the two shots.

Miss Sparhawk testified in the main as was reported in last night's Tribune. When Muhlner was brought into the room last night she identified him as the man whom she had seen leaving the Mooar house in the morning, but did not think he was the man whom she had seen walking along Webster street after the shooting. This man, was not seen until several minutes after the shooting, and it is not likely that the assassin would linger so long in the neighborhood of his crime. Witness also stated that she had heard a man walking in the thicket near the creek while she was looking for some fruit.

The inquest was continued till this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

MEDIUMS.

ADVICE AND ASSISTANCE FOR all—Secure a charm and wear diamonds; his parlors are always filled with anxious people seeking reliable information, and every reply is most gratifying. All are pleased. Professor Eugene gives advice on business, speculations, investments, love, courtship, marriage and divorce, settles lovers' quarrels, reunites the separated and causes a speedy and happy marriage with the one of your choice; he locates mines and buried treasures, tells you of your friends and enemies, removes evil influences, gives advice pertaining to lawsuits, locates and recovers old estates. Developing mediums a specialty. The troubled and unfortunate should seek his counsel. Thousands of families long separated, have been reunited by his efforts; thousands of hearts made glad through his truthful predictions; he is the only clairvoyant on earth recognized by the profession as their brightest star; all persons unsuccessful in business, who seem to be unlucky, should visit him, seek his aid, and start aright. Thousands have become wealthy through his advice; he is ever ready to assist those with capital to find a safe and good-paying investment. Young men starting in business will find it greatly to their advantage to consult him on all matters of financial interest to themselves. Good Attractions Have Been Booked for Oakland This Season.

William Gillette, in the most successful of his comedies, "Too Much Johnson," will be the attraction at the Macdonough for three nights commencing next Monday evening. The sale of seats will commence on Thursday and Manager Cook predicts a tremendous business. Gillette has become one of the leading writers of bright, sparkling comedy and his ability to portray his own creations is exceptional.

Following Gillette will be John Drew in "The Bauble Shop."

"THE CRIME OF A CENTURY."

That much-talked-of play, "The Crime of a Century," about which so many claim extensive knowledge when, in fact, its real purport, text and situations are, so far as the public is concerned, an unknown quantity, as it has never received a full production, will be given tomorrow evening at Dietz's Opera House. The original San Francisco cast that spent a night in jail for disobeying Judge Murphy's order, will be seen in the various characters. Manager Dailey is at a loss to understand why so many wish to prejudice a play that he claims does not contain an immoral line or allusion and whose general tenor is the average drama of today. It is to be played throughout the interior for two weeks and will then be presented to San Francisco for its critical inspection. Seats are now on sale at P. E. and E. C. Reilly's drug store, and the indications are that the houses will be crowded at each performance.

THE OAKLAND THEATER.

Thomas Leary and James Post the clever character comedians, will give a week of "Fun on the Bristol" at the Oakland theater commencing next Monday. They will bring a very competent troupe of specialty people with them.

THE BALDWIN.

John Drew with his selected company appeared last night before an ultra fashionable audience at the Baldwin in "The Bauble Shop," a new play by H. A. Jones, who has made a great hit as a writer of modern society dramas. The engagement is an event in theatrical circles. It is one which will call out the very best people and will commend itself as well worth an evening's visit. The Baldwin will not suffer any of its prestige from John Drew and the excellent company of players he has with him. The play is clever and its production last night was pronounced a success without reserve.

THE COLUMBIA

A triple bill was given at the Columbia last evening and the entertainment was delightful. The curtain raiser was "A Man of the World," in which Maurice Barrymore portrayed the character to perfection. "Nance Old Field" followed and Miss Coghlan did not disappoint her admirers in the interpretation of Charles Reade's heroine. Her performance was delightful. Henry Dixey had full swing to his fun in "A Tragedy Rehearsed." It is a jolly thing and left the audience to depart in good humor.

THE ORPHEUM.

Manager Walters has a programme of specialties to offer this week that will crowd the always popular Orpheum to the doors. The last week's success of the Jordan family is repeated while other performers who have won their way into popularity are retained.

MOROSCO'S.

A startling drama of Western life is "A Cracker Jack," with a full complement of wild situations in which a real "hold up" is one of the features. The play meets the tastes of the Morosco patrons and will do a big business this week.

THE TIVOLI.

"The Royal Middy" commenced its second week last night to a big house at the Tivoli. The tuneful opera is popular and its staging is a feature of the production.

THE MECHANICS' FAIR.

Thousands are daily finding their way into the big Mechanics' Pavilion to enjoy the wealth of attractions that are offered during the twenty-eighth Industrial Exposition of the Mechanics' Institute. There are unequalled displays this year and the fair partakes more of a national exhibition than ever before. It received a stimulous from the recent Midwinter Exposition that has caused a great improvement. Scheel's grand orchestra is undeniably the finest collection of musicians the exposition has ever gathered together.

Off to Boston.

There was a brilliant scene at the broad gauge mole last night, hundreds of ladies and gentlemen gathering there to bid bon voyage to the members of Oakland Commandery, K. T., on their way to the triennial conclave at Boston. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed and the heartiest wishes for a pleasant journey and a safe return were expressed for everybody on board the Pullman cars as they pulled out of the mole for the other side of the country.

THE FIGHT FOR SILVER.

Encouraging Opening of the Convention in San Francisco.

G. W. Baker Explains the Ends Which It Is Desired to Attain.

The Convention of the California branch of the American Bimetalic League assembled at noon yesterday in the Metropolitan Hall, San Francisco.

The several committees were appointed and an adjournment was taken until 9 o'clock this morning.

The convention was called to order by George W. Baker of this city, chairman of the executive committee of the California branch of the Bimetalic League. In his opening address he said that the silver question is the most important one before the people of the United States and that the delegates present had come together to discuss the subject for the benefit of their country.

"Among you," said Mr. Miller, "I observe farmers, merchants and men of every business, excepting banking. I do not expect any bankers here. On one side of this question are the producers of every class and on the other the bankers and bondholders. We silver men will speak at the next election. We are Democrats, Republicans, Populists, or whatever else we may be called; but all of us have one object in view—the restoration of silver to its proper position. We train with no political party; we ask no man whether he is a Democrat, Republican or Populist. All we ask is that he be a friend of silver, the money of the people and of a financial policy which shall benefit the workers and producers of the country.

"We will fight to a finish and never lay down our arms until silver is enthroned. It was degraded by an infamous conspiracy, and the work of that conspiracy must be undone. The press of the East has not treated the silver question in a proper spirit. It is controlled by Pierrepont Morgan, Rothschild, and the gold syndicate, our deadliest enemies. We can and will protect our financial policy from any three-ball concern of that character."

This address was received with much applause. Miss Phoebe Couzins, who was on the platform, joined in the cheers.

The question of allowing delegates from other states to vote came up and inquiry was made of Chairman Baker on the subject and he replied as follows:

"This is a new deal in politics and we are not bound by any technicalities."

The motion to extend all rights and privileges from other states was carried unanimously.

J. P. Ednoff of Alameda was given a position on the committee of permanent organization.

Frank Moffitt of this city was appointed a member of the committee on platform and resolutions.

Speeches were made by D. W. McNeill of San Francisco; D. E. Alexander of Sacramento and C. C. Powning, and a number of others.

At the meeting of the committee on platform, Judge Gibson said he favored going slowly, and that before the convention adjourned they might consider the question of forming a new party.

COUNTY WORK.

Improvements and General Business Before the Supervisors.

At yesterday afternoon's session of the Supervisors the application for aid for Mrs. Mary Johnson, widow, residing at 617 Sixth street, was referred to Supervisor Church; that of Walter Young, aged 75 years, for railroad fare to Chico, was denied.

Supervisor Talcott was instructed to build a bridge over San Leandro creek, near Haywards at an expense not to exceed $480.

Claims for damages for road 2781 were allowed as follows: Mary Ives Crocker et al., $16.80; R. Heara, $58.80; J. T. Getschell, $43.50; F. Caledewigh, $21.60; Mrs. Louise Davis, $2.50; James Brown, 20 cents; A. Brecht, $35.60; D. Garwente, $23.80; L. B. Coleman, $10.60. Total, $224.90.

The question of declaring Second avenue from Temescal avenue to Hudson street a county road was referred to the county surveyor.

The question of fees in the matter of the prosecution of F. E. Mitchell for chicken stealing occasioned a great deal of surprise because they were a great deal more than the value of the goods stolen. The matter will be investigated by the board.

The A. O. U. W. Meeting.

The "open meeting" for tomorrow evening under the auspices of Brooklyn Lodge, No. 3, A. O. U. W., will be held in Odd Fellows' hall, corner Twelfth street and Eleventh avenue, East Oakland, and not at Washington hall as erroneously stated in a postal card received by members of the order. An elaborate programme has been prepared for the occasion.

The "representative citizen" of Oakland has at last been stirred up over the contemptible methods of a rival of the Cortland Water Company. While competition is the life of trade, placed under the direction of such despicable beings it is a detriment to the community. Now that the water robbery has been denounced the common people may expect an innings.—Alameda Telegram.

FIX UP THE HIGHWAYS.

Money Spent on the Streets Will Prove a Good Investment.

The Movement to Improve the Roads Should Be Indorsed by All.

The streets of Oakland and the roads of Alameda county are not the best in the State. There is no reason why they should not be the best. With a abundance of the most perfect of road material that is easily accessible to every part of the county and that can be placed on the roads at small expense, with abundance of water for sprinkling in summer and good drainage in winter, with easy grades for hauling produce and unsurpassed sites for scenic drives there is no good reason why this county should not be known throughout the world for its roads. That it is not so known is due to indifference of the citizens.

When the State Bureau of Highways visited this city and commented unfavorably on the condition of the roads the County Supervisors expressed the opinion that the roads of Alameda county were the best in the State. There are perhaps some others who hold the same opinion, but a little investigation would prove how erroneous the idea is. The purpose of the Good Roads Association is to remove this reproach. This is to be accomplished, not all at once, but a step at a time.

The first point at which the association aims is to improve the approaches to the city. Alameda, Berkeley and the eastern parts of the county are cut off from Oakland by almost impassible roads. The road across the marsh from Alameda is in a condition that renders it dangerous to drive over it. Twelfth street, across the dam and for several blocks beyond, is in an equally bad condition. Telegraph, San Pablo and Shattuck avenues and Adeline street are all in bad condition. These should be put in good condition, and the association is actively pushing to that end.

The work that is being done on the streets from time to time is often carelessly done. The foundation is not properly rolled, or the rock is too large in size, or the top dressing is not sufficient in quantity. The contractors are not dishonest, but they are simply human beings, and they naturally become careless and need watching. It is the duty of the city officials to perform this work of watching, and they are doing all they can. But there is more work than they can attend to thoroughly, and poor work is done upon the street and is accepted. The blame for this lies with the citizens who do not take the trouble to look after their own interests. One of the lines of work of the Association is to assist the city officials in this work of supervision, and to give the citizens an opportunity to assist themselves.

Another line of activity is to gather information regarding the best methods of road building and street repairing, and to spread this information in order that all may know whether they are getting the worth of their money when they pay for street work. Throughout the country this subject is being studied, and the best professional opinion is being gathered. Knowledge of the science of road building is becoming general, and the people are beginning to find out that it pays to know about these things. An improperly laid road will not last; the expense of repairs is far greater than the additional original cost of a good road, and the direct and indirect expense of driving over them amounts to a sum that would be surprising were it once figured out.

These are some of the general lines of activity that the association proposes for itself. Other opportunities for work will arise from time to time and the association will embrace them. Those who have heretofore been active are willing to continue in the work and to give their time freely. But something more is needed. Money is required at every step and this can be secured only by every person who favors good streets and a prosperous city, joining the association. Without this the work can not be accomplished. The prosperity of a city is not ensured by apathy on the part of the citizens.

RAISIN MEN ARE HAPPY.

Good Prices Prevail and the Prospects Are Assuring.

A New Arrangement That Is Proving Profitable to Producers.

J. W. Laymance returned from Fresno last evening where he has been overseeing the shipment of raisins and grapes from his ranch. He shipped two carloads of Malagas during his stay. Mr. Laymance says there are better times in store for the raisin growers of Fresno, due to the better methods in handling the product. For two years past the growers of Fresno county have consigned their product to the packers and were entirely in the hands of the latter after their crops reached the consignees.

Things have changed this year. Colonel Forsyth and A. B. Butler, two of the largest vineyardists in the county, have entered the field and are buying raisins in the sweat box at from 1¾c to 2¼c a pound cash.

"This will pay the growers handsomely if the price reaches 3 to 4 cents," said Mr. Laymance. "Of course the best thing would be for the growers to hold their crop back until later in the season and not contract at the present time at the present prices. By doing so I believe the demand would be greater. That is to say there would be more buyers in the field. There is one redeemable feature about having buyers in the field for raisins in the sweat box. I can see in this movement that it gives the growers a chance to compel the packers to buy raisins here or else guarantee to the growers a certain sum for his raisins and protect prices in the Eastern market.

"Of course the price of 2c per pound for raisins in the sweat box is entirely too low and there is no money in this proposition for the growers but it could be made better if the growers will stand firm. To do this there is considerable work to be done and they must do it at once.

"In the first place, every grower who has been compelled to get advances from the commission packers or who has been compelled to contract his crop should go to them and compel them in writing to guarantee a return of at least 2 cents per pound for raisins delivered up to a certain time in October or whatever is offered for raisins at the present time in the sweat box. If the packers will not do this the grower should sell elsewhere and pay back his advances to the commission packers. If this course is taken it will not be ten days I believe before the raisins will rise from 2 to 3 cents if not to 4 cents per pound in the sweat box.

"I believe there is not more than half a crop of raisins this year and that between now and the 15th day of October we shall see a heavy demand for raisins and good prices obtained so at least think a great many of the growers with whom I talked at Fresno on this trip."

Christian Healing.

At the meeting of Presbyterian clergymen in San Francisco yesterday "Faith Healing" was discussed. Rev. Campbell Coyle of the First Presbyterian church of this city said "Christian science is the counterfeit of the art of Divine healing, which has been lost to the church and taken up by the devil. If the patient has faith he can be cured without the use of drugs."

VOL. XXXX. OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 20, 1895. NO. 44.

A FERRY TRAGEDY.

J. T. Chamberlain of Alameda Shoots Himself on the Newark.

He Put a Bullet in His Brain as the Boat Reached the Slip.

DESPONDENCY THE CAUSE.

He Is Said to Have Been at One Time in the Stockton Asylum.

J. T. Chamberlain, a dairyman of Fruitvale, shot himself in the head on the lower deck of the narrow gauge ferry boat Newark this morning at 9:30 o'clock as the boat was nearing the San Francisco side of the bay. The suicidal deed was accomplished so quickly that before the passengers had recovered from the shock caused by the pistol shot Chamberlain lay prostrate on the deck with the blood pouring from an ugly wound. The pistol was grasped in one hand.

Physicians who were among the crowd of passengers went to the relief of the wounded man, but they pronounced his injuries as surely fatal. Temporary assistance was given him and such medical aid as could be furnished at the time was afforded until the boat reached the slip. A telephone call brought the ambulance from the city receiving hospital, where Chamberlain was quickly taken. Further examination showed that the wound was fatal beyond a doubt.

The shooting caused great excitement on the boat as a large number of the passengers were gathered at the bow, awaiting the docking of the steamer in the slip. Chamberlain seemingly took advantage of the absence of people from the stern to accomplish the act, and just as the boat had touched the slip the bullet went crashing into his brain, entering the brain near the left temple.

As soon as the receiving hospital was reached Chamberlain's clothing was searched to ascertain his identity. Cards and business documents revealed his calling. A box of cartridges from which six shells had been taken to load the pistol was found. The weapon was a new one. It apparently was used for the first time when the despondent dairyman committed his desperate act.

HIS PERSONALITY.

Chamberlain is about 35 years of age. He is the owner of the Jersey Dairy Farm, situated east of Fruit Vale. He has resided there for the past three months, having purchased the place or an interest in it, from W. Forep.

Chamberlin came here from Stockton, where, for a long time, he had been a farm hand. He is a widower and has children. His mother is now Mrs. Hill and resides on Twenty-third avenue.

The suicide has a half brother named William Mill, who was formerly a circulator connected with the Alameda Telegram.

For some time past Chamberlain has been despondent, though no reason can be assigned for his depression. It is said that Chamberlain was once an inmate of an insane asylum at Stockton.

At last accounts Chamberlain was sinking rapidly.

The remains will be brought to the city.

STOPPED WHEN HALF WAY

Unsatisfactory Result of the First of the Trial Races.

The Defender Was Doing Well and Then Suddenly Stopped.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—The first of the trial races between the yachts Defender and Vigilant to decide which shall contest with the Valkyrie III. for America's Cup was sailed today.

The course was ten miles south southwest from Sandy Hook lightship, which means a beat to and around a mark boat off Asbury Park.

The wind was light and the sky overcast.

The Vigilant crossed the line at 11:48 and the Defender at 11:49.

AT THE STAKEBOAT.

HIGHLANDS NAVESINK, 1:30 P.M. The Defender rounded the stakeboat at 1:09:20, and soon squared away under all sail for the run home.

The Vigilant will be about a mile behind. The wind is still steady from the southwest.

The Defender a minute after rounding brought out her spinnaker and balloon jib and went tearing along for the finish line at steamboat pace.

The Vigilant rounded the mark at 1:14:37, 5 minutes 15 seconds behind the Defender.

THE OFFICIAL TIMES.

SCOTLAND LIGHTSHIP, Aug. 20, 1:27 P. M.—Following are the official times:

Preparatory signal displayed 11:35 A. M.

Starting gun fired 11:45.

Yachts crossed the line at the following times: Vigilant, 11:45:56; Defender, 11:46:53.

Thus the Vigilant had a lead of 57 seconds at the start.

A GOOD LEAD.

HIGHLANDS NAVESINK, Aug. 20.—At about 1.50 P. M., or about 40 minutes after rounding the mark, it was estimated the Defender had a lead of twelve minutes.

1:52 P. M.—The committee's boat has just signalled that the course is to be sailed over twice.

2:05 P. M.—The Defender has turned the mark and is standing off again on the starboard tack in a beat to the outer mark the second time.

The Vigilant rounded the lightship at 2:08:30, only four minutes behind the Defender, having pulled up 1m. 17s. in the run home. After rounding the Vigilant stood away after the Defender on a starboard tack.

2:40 P. M.—The Defender is now running back towards Sandy Hook. The race has been called off.

WHY WAS IT?

SANDY HOOK, Aug. 20.—The race ended unsatisfactorily, as the Defender withdrew after making one round.

AGREED ON A FIGURE.

Mrs. Simmonds Will Receive $11,500 From the Railroad.

Her Husband Was Killed Last October at the Webster Street Accident.

Mrs. Lucille Simmonds, in behalf of herself and seven minor children, has effected a compromise with the Southern Pacific Company in her damage suit to recover $50,000 for the death of her husband, M. G. Simmonds, who was drowned in the narrow gauge draw bridge disaster last October.

The suit was on the calendar in Judge Greene's court this morning and Attorney Samuel Shortridge appeared in behalf of Mrs. Simmonds while the railroad company was represented by A. A. Moore and J. C. Martin.

Judge Greene granted a motion to dismiss the case on the representations of the counsel that a satisfactory settlement had been reached out of court. The amount of the compromise which will be paid to Mrs. Simmonds is $11,500. She agrees to accept that without costs of court.

Simmonds was a passenger in one of the cars of the narrow gauge train which was derailed at the southern end of the Webster street draw bridge on October 2d of last year. The car he was in was precipitated into the estuary and Simmonds was drowned before the rescuing parties could reach him. He was 47 years old and left a family consisting of his widow and seven children, namely, Alice, Mandeville, Walter, Irene, Ruby, Raymond and Levings. A. G. Gurnett was appointed guardian ad litem of the children while the case was pending in court. Suit was brought only a few months ago. Negotiations looking toward a satisfactorily settlement without litigation were pending for a long time after the accident.

A Number of Important Cases Called Before Judge Wood.

Emma Quigley and two men were the only occupants of the Police Dock this morning, although several cases where the offenders had been released on bail were called.

Thomas Dolan had a row with Daniel Murphy last night at the corner of Fifth and Chestnut streets. In the course of the struggle he struck his opponent in the leg with a pitchfork. Murphy had him arrested on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon and he was brought into court this morning. He had not secured legal aid and asked that his preliminary examination be continued until August 24th.

The case of Louis A. Muhlner, charged with murder, was called. Muhlner had not been brought into the court room, as it was impossible for his attorney to be present. At the request of Prosecuting Attorney Melvin the matter was continued until tomorrow.

C. E. Stewart, charged by County Clerk Frank Jordan with mutilating public records, occupied the dock. His preliminary examination was set for Friday.

Jos. Ballett had slept in a barn. He claimed to have no home and, though he pleaded guilty the court suspended judgment.

Ex-Police Officer Thomas Boyer was fined $10 for disturbing the peace of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Cashin.

In the cases of Louis Azuer, John Schion and B. F. Hensley, charged with selling liquor on the boats without having taken out licenses the motion for a new trial was denied. The defendants intended to make a test case and, accordingly Azuer was fined $25 and the passing of sentence on the others was continued to September 3d. Azuer gave notice of appeal.

WITNESSES SENT FOR.

The County Shortage Will Be Investigated Next Thursday.

Ex-Collector Rosborough Will Turn In All His Tax Receipts.

A large number of subpoenas have been issued from the District Attorney's office for witnesses to appear before the grand jury on Thursday to testify in the matter of the tax collector's office deficit. The subpoenas were issued late yesterday afternoon and were placed in the hands of Detective Herbert to serve. District Attorney Snook declined to give the names of the witnesses, but it is known that in the list are a number of county officials and ex-officials who are interested in the solving of the doubt that surrounds the tampering with the books of the tax collector's office to conceal the deficit that has been located.

The grand jury decided to get to work at once on that matter. The District Attorney is prepared to furnish a large amount of evidence, documentary and otherwise and he will be backed with the results of a considerable amount of labor performed by County Expert Davis, who is ready to go before the grand jury. The only material not yet at hand is the collection of tax receipt stubs in the possession of ex-Tax Collector Rosborough. These, however, are at the service of the grand jury and the expert as soon as the demand is made for them.

Auditor Myron Whidden, who will be a witness before the grand jury, is recovering from a serious attack of tonsilitis and fever which has confined him to his bed for a week past. He is still very weak, but expects to be able to make an appearance at his office tomorrow. J. J. Hanlin Jr., his deputy, said today that his chief was much improved and hoped to be able to return to his desk very soon.

There appears to be considerable feeling over the charges and countercharges that have been evolved during the publicity that has been given to the scandal. Many who are familiar with some of the conditions which have existed at the seat of county government declare that the investigation by the grand jury will be a very warm one. It is said that both sides in the matter are loaded with material and they propose to use it to the best advantage when the county's inquisitors commence to probe the scandal.

Tax Collector Barber is anxious to have the matter settled. He is the only one of all the interested parties who has suffered. He has paid $600 into the county treasury to cover a portion of the deficit, which has not been located, and he wants to find where the blame for it lies.

This afternoon a conference was held between Foreman Osgood, Expert Snow of the grand jury and County Expert Davis regarding the clerical work necessary to put everything in shape for the investigation on Thursday.

This is the thirteenth body found and identified.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The California System Ably Detailed in the Chronicle.

The San Francisco Chronicle today devotes twelve pages to the California public school system, which it characterizes as the crowning glory of the Golden State. The article is the most complete of its kind ever published in California. It is full of information regarding the education interests of this State and is valuable as a record. The history of the system is in detail from its inception to the present time. The article is richly illustrated and the wealth and variety of architecture employed in the various schools as shown by the pictures, indicates what pride the people take in their educational institutions.

The article is a valuable one for many reasons and will be read with interest in every part of the State. It was compiled by Taliesin Evans of this city and is a splendid evidence of that gentleman's ability in the literary field. It shows the interest he takes in the subject of education and also the splendid fund of information he possesses on all matters relating to the State.

BLOWN TO ETERNITY

An Explosion Deals Out Death at the Carnegie Works.

EIGHT KILLED AND MANY HURT.

The Workmen Mowed Down as if They Were Shot.

WOMEN CRAZED BY SORROW

Pathetic Scene When the News of the Disaster Spread.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 20.—An explosion at furnace H of the Carnegie Steel Company at Braddock at 5 o'clock this morning killed six men, fatally injured three more and seriously burned fifteen more, and destroyed $30,000 worth of property.

All the killed and injured are Hungarians except James Harrison, the foreman.

The names of the killed are Steve Havrela, Joseph Tuckay, Joseph Copp, John Meka, John Fookopove and John Gnicha.

The explosion was due to a "hang" in the furnace, which suddenly was loosened and dropped into the molten metal below, generating an immense quantity of gas so suddenly that it could not escape by ordinary means.

A few minutes before the explosion one of the top fillers dumped a barrow of material into the bell of the furnace, which he had forgotten to raise.

This clogged the top of the furnace and prevented the gas escaping.

A gang of sixteen men, in charge of James Harrison, were sent at once to the top of the furnace to remove the obstruction.

All were closely crowded around the bell of the furnace removing the material when there was a terrific explosion and the men at the barrows, tools and material were hurled in all directions.

FELL AS IF SHOT.

Flames, deadly gases and smoke belched from the furnace top and the gang of men fell as if shot.

One was thrown from the top of the furnace, along the metal roadway to the elevator shaft, down which he fell, and striking on a car, was cut in two.

A relief crew quickly went to the top of the furnace, where lay fifteen men bleeding, torn, burned and dying.

ROYAL Baking Powder Absolutely Pure

Flame and smoke were still coming from the furnace and the work of rescue was dangerous in the extreme.

Three men died before they reached the bottom of the elevator shaft, and the other six died between 5 and 8.

The contents of the furnace were scattered hundreds of yards around the furnace, falling in all parts of the yard, cutting and burning about ten men working below.

The carpenter shop 100 yards from the furnace was soon in flames and was destroyed.

If the furnace should have to be rebuilt the total damage will be $30,000.

The homes of the killed and injured were near the furnace and the streets in that vicinity were filled with a mass of frantic, half-crazy women and children.

Of the injured it is now thought five will die.

They are John Warha, John Skouda, Mike Jura, Mike Kapenos, Andrew Drotine.

The following seriously injured will probably recover: John Wagasky, John Seebroreay, James Harrison.

Two of the injured died in the hospital, making the number of dead eight. They were burned so badly as to be beyond recognition.

FEW MEN TO FEED.

Only Fifty Prisoners Are Now Confined in the County Jail.

Small Fees Lead to a Cessation of Hostilities by the Constables.

Fifty prisoners answer to the roll call in the county jail. This is a falling off of 100 per cent in the number cared for by the county before the new fee bill went into operation cutting the recompense of constables making arrests. The bill is being vigorously fought by the constables, but meanwhile they are not as vigorous in bringing to book the numerous tramps that infest the community. The constables claim that in many instances the cost for arresting tramps and taking them to jail exceeds the amount allowed under the law. They are therefore relaxing their vigils somewhat until the Supreme court decides on the case, which has been brought to determine the legality of the act.

Jailer Will Lane said today that there are fewer prisoners confined in the Alameda county jail now than for years past. He attributes it to the fact that constables are not so hot on the trail of the "weary walkers" as when the fees were a little more fat.

Only Circumstantial Evidence So Far Against Muhlner.

The Tale Retold at the Investigation of Coroner Baldwin.

The inquest over the remains of the late Jennie Lewis was held last night by Coroner Baldwin in the rooms over the morgue. There was a large attendance, among the throng being friends and parents of the deceased.

Mrs. Marion Lewis, the mother of the dead girl, testified that she was not aware of the fact that her daughter Jennie had kept company with gentlemen. She said that Muhlner had made Jennie a present of a dress on her birthday in March last.

A. C. Lewis, father of the girl, repeated the facts of his connection with the case since he heard of his daughter's shooting.

Mrs. E. R. Redmayne testified to having aided in taking care of Miss Lewis after the shooting.

The testimony of C. H. Miller showed that he had gone to parties with Jennie, but that he was at home from 10 A. M. Monday, the 10th inst, until he was notified of Jennie's shooting in the evening.

Joseph Little testified that he had seen Dr. Moore and Miss Lewis on the front steps of Moore's house and had seen Dr. Moore start to go away and heard Miss Lewis ask him if he were going. It was about thirty minutes after that he had heard the two shots.

Miss Sparhawk testified in the main as was reported in last night's Tribune. When Muhlner was brought into the room last night she identified him as the man whom she had seen leaving the Moore house in the morning, but did not think he was the man whom she had seen walking along Webster street after the shooting. This man, was not seen until several minutes after the shooting, and it is not likely that the assassin would linger so long in the neighborhood of his crime. Witness also stated that she had heard a man walking in the thicket near the creek while she was looking for some fruit.

The inquest was continued till this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

VOL. XXXX. OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 20, 1895. NO. 44.

A FERRY TRAGEDY.

J. T. Chamberlain of Alameda Shoots Himself on the Newark.

He Put a Bullet In His Brain as the Boat Reached the Slip.

DESPONDENCY THE CAUSE.

He Is Said to Have Been at One Time in the Stockton Asylum.

J. T. Chamberlain, a dairyman of Fruitvale, shot himself in the head on the lower deck of the narrow gauge ferry boat Newark this morning at 9:30 o'clock as the boat was nearing the San Francisco side of the bay. The suicidal deed was accomplished so quickly that before the passengers had recovered from the shock caused by the pistol shot Chamberlain lay prostrate on the deck with the blood pouring from an ugly wound. The pistol was grasped in one hand.

Physicians who were among the crowd of passengers went to the relief of the wounded man, but they pronounced his injuries as surely fatal. Temporary assistance was given him and such medical aid as could be furnished at the time was afforded until the boat reached the slip. A telephone call brought the ambulance from the city receiving hospital, where Chamberlain was quickly taken. Further examination showed that the wound was fatal beyond a doubt.

The shooting caused great excitement on the boat as a large number of the passengers were gathered at the bow, awaiting the docking of the steamer in the slip. Chamberlain seemingly took advantage of the absence of people from the stern to accomplish the act, and just as the boat had touched the slip the bullet went crashing into his brain, entering the brain near the left temple.

As soon as the receiving hospital was reached Chamberlain's clothing was searched to ascertain his identity. Cards and business documents revealed his calling. A box of cartridges from which six shells had been taken to load the pistol was found. The weapon was a new one. It apparently was used for the first time when the despondent dairyman committed his desperate act.

HIS PERSONALITY.

Chamberlain is about 35 years of age. He is the owner of the Jersey Dairy Farm, situated east of Fruit Vale. He has resided there for the past three months, having purchased the place or an interest in it, from W. Porep.

Chamberlin came here from Stockton, where, for a long time, he had been a farm hand. He is a widower and has children. His mother is now Mrs. Hill and resides on Twenty-third avenue.

The suicide has a half brother named William Mill, who was formerly a circulator connected with the Alameda Telegram.

For some time past Chamberlain has been despondent, though no reason can be assigned for his depression. It is said that Chamberlain was once an inmate of an insane asylum at Stockton.

At last accounts Chamberlain was sinking rapidly.

The remains will be brought to the city.

STOPPED WHEN HALF WAY

Unsatisfactory Result of the First of the Trial Races.

The Defender Was Doing Well and Then Suddenly Stopped.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—The first of the trial races between the yachts Defender and Vigilant to decide which shall contest with the Valkyrie III. for America's Cup was sailed today.

The course was ten miles south southwest from Sandy Hook lightship, which means a beat to and around a mark boat off Asbury Park.

The wind was light and the sky overcast.

The Vigilant crossed the line at 11:48 and the Defender at 11:49.

AT THE STAKEBOAT.

HIGHLANDS NAVESINK, 1.30 P.M. The Defender rounded the stakeboat at 1:09:20, and soon squared away under all sail for the run home.

The Vigilant will be about a mile behind. The wind is still steady from the southwest.

The Defender a minute after rounding brought out her spinnaker and balloon jib and went tearing along for the finish line at steamboat pace.

The Vigilant rounded the mark at 1:14:37, 5 minutes 15 seconds behind the Defender.

THE OFFICIAL TIMES.

SCOTLAND LIGHTSHIP, Aug. 20, 1:27 P. M.—Following are the official times:

Preparatory signal displayed 11:35 A. M.

Starting gun fired 11:45.

Yachts crossed the line at the following times: Vigilant, 11:45:56; Defender, 11:46 53.

Thus the Vigilant had a lead of 57 seconds at the start.

A GOOD LEAD.

HIGHLANDS NAVESINK, Aug. 20.—At about 1.30 P. M., or about 40 minutes after rounding the mark, it was estimated the Defender had a lead of twelve minutes.

1:52 P. M.—The committee's boat has just signalled that the course is to be sailed over twice.

2:05 P. M.—The Defender has turned the mark and is standing off again on the starboard tack in a beat to the outer mark the second time.

The Vigilant rounded the lightship at 2:08:30, only four minutes behind the Defender, having pulled up 1m. 17s. in the run home. After rounding the Vigilant stood away after the Defender on a starboard tack.

2:40 P. M.—The Defender is now running back towards Sandy Hook. The race has been called off.

WHY WAS IT?

SANDY HOOK, Aug. 20.—The race ended unsatisfactorily, as the Defender withdrew after making one round.

As the Defender left for the anchorage a reporter asked what the trouble was.

Captain Haff answered: "No trouble."

The inference drawn by the watermen was that the Defender had strained something or was afraid of doing so.

When the Vigilant was about a mile and a half on the second round the committee's boat stopped her and she did not finish.

County Clerk Jordan swore to a complaint this morning charging Cornelius E. Stuart with felony in mutilating the records of the office by changing the signature Stuart had made to a marriage license affidavit in the county clerk's office. Jordan says he proposes to press the charge in the light of yesterday's developments which prove that Stuart had an ulterior purpose in the bungling attempt he made to change the records.

WITNESSES SENT FOR.

The County Shortage Will Be Investigated Next Thursday.

Ex-Collector Rosborough Will Turn In All His Tax Receipts.

A large number of subpoenas have been issued from the District Attorney's office for witnesses to appear before the grand jury on Thursday to testify in the matter of the tax collector's office deficit. The subpoenas were issued late yesterday afternoon and were placed in the hands of Detective Herbert to serve. District Attorney Snook declined to give the names of the witnesses, but it is known that in the list are a number of county officials and ex-officials who are interested in the solving of the doubt that surrounds the tampering with the books of the tax collector's office to conceal the deficit that has been located.

The grand jury decided to get to work at once on that matter. The District Attorney is prepared to furnish a large amount of evidence, documentary and otherwise and he will be backed with the results of a considerable amount of labor performed by County Expert Davis, who is ready to go before the grand jury. The only material not yet at hand is the collection of tax receipt stubs in the possession of ex-Tax Collector Rosborough. These, however, are at the service of the grand jury and the expert as soon as the demand is made for them.

Auditor Myron Whidden, who will be a witness before the grand jury, is recovering from a serious attack of tonsilitis and fever which has confined him to his bed for a week past. He is still very weak, but expects to be able to make an appearance at his office tomorrow. J. J. Hanifin Jr., his deputy, said today that his chief was much improved and hoped to be able to return to his desk very soon.

There appears to be considerable feeling over the charges and countercharges that have been evolved during the publicity that has been given to the scandal. Many who are familiar with some of the conditions which have existed at the seat of county government declare that the investigation by the grand jury will be a very warm one. It is said that both sides in the matter are loaded with material and they propose to use it to the best advantage when the county's inquisitors commence to probe the scandal.

Tax Collector Barber is anxious to have the matter settled. He is the only one of all the interested parties who has suffered. He has paid $600 into the county treasury to cover a portion of the deficit, which has not been located, and he wants to find where the blame for it lies.

This afternoon a conference was held between Foreman Osgood, Expert Snow of the grand jury and County Expert Davis regarding the clerical work necessary to put everything in shape for the investigation on Thursday.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The California System Ably Detailed in the Chronicle.

The San Francisco Chronicle today devotes twelve pages to the California public school system, which it characterizes as the crowning glory of the Golden State. The article is the most complete of its kind ever published in California. It is full of information regarding the education interests of this State and is valuable as a record. The history of the system is in detail from its inception to the present time. The article is richly illustrated and the wealth and variety of architecture employed in the various schools as shown by the pictures, indicates what pride the people take in their educational institutions.

The article is a valuable one for many reasons and will be read with interest in every part of the State. It was compiled by Talfesin Evans of this city and is a splendid evidence of that gentleman's ability in the literary field. It shows the interest he takes in the subject of education and also the splendid fund of information he possesses on all matters relating to the State.

BLOWN TO ETERNITY

An Explosion Deals Out Death at the Carnegie Works.

EIGHT KILLED AND MANY HURT.

The Workmen Mowed Down as if They Were Shot.

WOMEN CRAZED BY SORROW

Pathetic Scene When the News of the Disaster Spread.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 20.—An explosion at furnace H of the Carnegie Steel Company at Braddock at 5 o'clock this morning killed six men, fatally injured three more and seriously burned fifteen more, and destroyed $30,000 worth of property.

All the killed and injured are Hungarians except James Harrison, the foreman.

The names of the killed are Steve Havrela, Joseph Tuckay, Joseph Copp, John Meka, John Pookopove and John Gnicha.

The explosion was due to a "hang" in the furnace, which suddenly was loosened and dropped into the molten metal below, generating an immense quantity of gas so suddenly that it could not escape by ordinary means.

A few minutes before the explosion one of the top fillers dumped a barrow of material into the bell of the furnace, which he had forgotten to raise.

This clogged the top of the furnace and prevented the gas escaping.

A gang of sixteen men, in charge of James Harrison, were sent at once to the top of the furnace to remove the obstruction.

All were closely crowded around the bell of the furnace removing the material when there was a terrific explosion and the men at the barrows, tools and material were hurled in all directions.

FELL AS IF SHOT.

Flames, deadly gases and smoke belched from the furnace top and the gang of men fell as if shot.

One was thrown from the top of the furnace, along the metal roadway to the elevator shaft, down which he fell, and striking on a car, was cut in two.

A relief crew quickly went to the top of the furnace, where lay fifteen men bleeding, torn, burned and dying.

ROYAL Baking Powder Absolutely Pure

Flame and smoke were still coming from the furnace and the work of rescue was dangerous in the extreme.

Three men died before they reached the bottom of the elevator shaft, and the other six died between 5 and 8.

The contents of the furnace were scattered hundreds of yards around the furnace, falling in all parts of the yard, cutting and burning about ten men working below.

The carpenter shop 100 yards from the furnace was soon in flames and was destroyed.

If the furnace should have to be rebuilt the total damage will be $30,000.

The homes of the killed and injured were near the furnace and the streets in that vicinity were filled with a mass of frantic, half-crazy women and children.

Of the injured it is now thought five will die.

They are John Warha, John Skonda, Mike Jura, Mike Kapenos, Andrew Dreotine.

The following seriously injured will probably recover: John Wagasky, John Seebroreay, James Harrison.

Two of the injured died in the hospital, making the number of dead eight. They were burned so badly as to be beyond recognition.

FEW MEN TO FEED.

Only Fifty Prisoners Are Now Confined in the County Jail.

Small Fees Lead to a Cessation of Hostilities by the Constables.

Fifty prisoners answer to the roll call in the county jail. This is a falling off of 100 per cent in the number cared for by the county before the new fee bill went into operation cutting the recompense of constables making arrests. The bill is being vigorously fought by the constables, but meanwhile they are not as vigorous in bringing to book the numerous tramps that infest the community. The constables claim that in many instances the cost for arresting tramps and taking them to jail exceeds the amount allowed under the law. They are therefore relaxing their vigils somewhat until the Supreme court decides on the case, which has been brought to determine the legality of the act.

Jailer Will Lane said today that there are fewer prisoners confined in the Alameda county jail now than for years past. He attributes it to the fact that constables are not so hot on the trail of the "weary walkers" as when the fees were a little more fat.

Only Circumstantial Evidence So Far Against Muhlner.

The Tale Retold at the Investigation of Coroner Baldwin.

The inquest over the remains of the late Jennie Lewis was held last night by Coroner Baldwin in the rooms over the morgue. There was a large attendance, among the throng being friends and parents of the deceased.

Mrs. Marion Lewis, the mother of the dead girl, testified that she was not aware of the fact that her daughter Jennie had kept company with gentlemen. She said that Muhlner had made Jennie a present of a dress on her birthday in March last.

A. C. Lewis, father of the girl, repeated the facts of his connection with the case since he heard of his daughter's shooting.

Mrs. E. R. Redmayne testified to having aided in taking care of Miss Lewis after the shooting.

The testimony of C. H. Miller showed that he had gone to parties with Jennie, but that he was at home from 10 A. M. Monday, the 10th inst, until he was notified of Jennie's shooting in the evening.

Joseph Little testified that he had seen Dr. Mooar and Miss Lewis on the front steps of Mooar's house and had seen Dr. Mooar start to go away and heard Miss Lewis ask him if he were going. It was about thirty minutes after that he had heard the two shots.

Miss Sparhawk testified in the main as was reported in last night's Tribune. When Muhlner was brought into the room last night she identified him as the man whom she had seen leaving the Mooar house in the morning, but did not think he was the man whom she had seen walking along Webster street after the shooting. This man, was not seen until several minutes after the shooting, and it is not likely that the assassin would linger so long in the neighborhood of his crime. Witness also stated that she had heard a man walking in the thicket near the creek while she was looking for some fruit.

The inquest was continued till this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

CHANGES IN SCHOOLS

The Board of Education Elects a Couple of New Teachers.

REISSUE OF BONDS DISCUSSED.

Vice Principals Selected for the Various Grammar Grades.

McCLYMONDS TO GET A REST.

Dr. Myra Knox Is Selected as the Temporary President.

The Board of Education held its regular monthly meeting last night in their board rooms at the City Hall. President Evans, the chairman had left for the East and a chairman pro tem was necessary. Director Clement nominated Dr. Mrs. Knox and the board displayed their gallantry by electing the lady.

In the chair Dr. Knox was effectual but a mistake had been made in placing her there.

No one knew exactly how to address her. She suggested that "Mr. Chairman" was proper but others thought differently, some addressed her as "Mrs. Chairman" others "Mrs. Chairwoman" and altogether considerable time was occupied devising the proper appellation for the pro tem occupant of the chair.

The resignation of Miss Harriet J. Lee of the Cole School was read and accepted. This gave the Board an opportunity to elect two new teachers.

To fill the place made vacant in the Cole school Director McMillan nominated Miss Isabelle Morrison. No other nominations were made and she was unanimously elected.

The proposition to mass the ninth grades in the seventh ward was lost and a ninth grade teacher had to be elected for the Garfield School. Director Moody paid a glowing tribute to Miss Lyda Sparks who had been holding the position as a substitute and placed her name before the Board as a candidate for the regular place.

Director McMullan wanted to know if that before leaving for the East Director Evans had asked him to place in nomination Mrs. Shortley.

Dicertor McMullan wanted to know if there was not a rule excluding married women from school teaching. As there was none her name was left before the Board.

The roll was called and resulted in the election of Mrs. Shortley by a vote of 7 to 3.

NOW A SUBSTITUTE.

Miss Durant of the Franklin School sent a request for leave of absence and had started for the East with the Knights Templar to visit her mother who was ill and had sent for her. The rule in such cases was adverse to the actions of the teachers, but Director Moody said that he had told the teacher that he undoubtedly thought the Board would grant her request and under his advice she had gone. The Board considering the circumstances suspended the rule and granted Miss Durant a leave of absence until October 8th.

This necessitated the election of a substitute. Director Moody placed in nomination Miss M. A. Smith. No other nominations were made and Miss Smith was unanimously elected to the vacancy.

The Board was in an electing mood and when Mrs. Draper was nominated as an assistant to her husband in the laboratory at the High School everyone was willing. The only question was, "Had she the proper certificate?" No one knew but the motion was carried and Mrs. Draper was declared to be something, no one knew what, at a monthly salary of $40.

Director Edwards wanted an assistant in the kindergarten department of the Tompkins School and suggested the name of Miss Margaret Davison at a salary of $40 a month while employed.

Director McMullen moved to amend by making the salary $480 a year.

The Board was with Director Edwards but the rules were against him unless Miss Davison possessed the necessary certificate. No one knew and the matter was compromised by a motion creating the position of assistant kindergarten teacher at the Tompkins School. In the mean time it will be ascertained if Miss Davison is a certificate holder and the election was continued until the next meeting.

THE PIERSON GIFT.

The committee appointed to receive the gift of Mr. Pierson handed in a report. The members expressed their thanks on behalf of the Board of Education to the donor for the gift, spoke of it as an addition to the schools, and added their appreciation of the generous bequest. In accordance resolutions were adopted naming the Pierson Photographic Telescope and extending to Mr. Pierson a vote of thanks and an expression of their deep sense of gratification.

Director Clement introduced Mr. Brayton, who had a patent fire extinguisher. Mr. Brayton explained to the Board the use, cost and efficiency of the new device and the chair referred the matter to the committee on furniture and supplies.

THE SCHOOL BONDS.

The Council had sent a request to the Board asking them to express their opinion on the advisibility of refunding the school bonds.

Director Clement was first to gain the attention of the chair. He was in favor of refunding and suggested that a resolution to that effect be passed and transmitted to the Council.

Director Moody thought it not a proper matter for the Board to meddle with and proposed an amendment that the Board resolve to have nothing to do with it.

Director Reed expressed himself in favor of a reissue and thought the Populists should agree with him as they constituted perhaps one-third of the population but did not pay more than one-tenth of the taxes.

Director Moody was conservative and wanted time to think the matter over. Moody in his speech said that "as individuals we may do silly things. We do not want to do silly things as a Board," he said.

Director Friend wanted to know what he meant by silly things and Moody explained to the satisfaction of all.

Director Reed wanted to place the Board on record as in favor of the reissue.

Moody's substitute was lost on a vote of five to five and the original motion was carried on a six to four vote.

Charles Logan had asked permission to photograph the school classes and Dames & Dorsay had asked that the same favor be accorded to them. Some directors talked for one, some for another. Moody was neutral and suggested to "let them hustle." A Henry Clay compromise was effected—Logan was to photograph half the classes, Dames & Dorsay, the other half, the rules and regulations committee to assign to each his share.

VICE PRINCIPALS.

The following were appointed to act as vice principals in the grammar schools:

Clawson—Mrs. Mary G. Ayers.
Cole—Miss A. G. Madden.
Durant—Miss S. J. Hodgden.
Franklin—Miss E. R. Tucker.
Garfield—Miss Abbie S. Phillips.
Grant—Miss Mary C. Ellis.
Grove—Miss M. M. Campbell.
Harrison—Miss Anna C. Cordes.
La Fayette—Miss Nellie Cook.
Lincoln—Miss J. O'Meara.
Prescott—Miss Mary C. Heaton
Sweet—Miss E. W. Hayes.
Tompkins—Miss A. S. Walton.
Central Evening—Miss L. S. Thorpe.

A motion to suspend the rule requiring the teachers to make and file a monthly report of the work to be done and the method of teaching it was introduced and passed.

Edwin L. Knowlton and Nettie Thompson applied for permission to teach in the public schools. Their applications were sent to the committee on credentials.

The requisitions of the principals which had been approved by the supply committee were read and allowed. Everything had been asked for from a box of tooth-picks and two tin buckets to a gross of shoestrings and two hundred pounds of clay.

The institute had been set for the 9th 10th and 11th days of October. The Board decided to declare the 7th and 8th days of the same month a vacation and the proper resolution was passed.

District Attorney Snook sent to the Board his opinion on the teachers' annuity fund. It was but a copy of the act creating the fund.

THE HIGH SCHOOL BOARD.

After the meeting of the Board of Education the High School Board was called to order.

A number of the High School pupils had asked the Board that they be allowed to take special courses. Their request tion in which Secretary McClymonds was met with no small degree of opposit took the lead. He came from behind his desk and spoke at length. He told how pupils who were unable to keep up in any one study would send to the Board and ask to be excused from taking it.

"Let me take the report of Mr. McChesney," he said, "after the first two months of school and I will tell you every pupil who will make this request and I will further tell just what studies they will want to drop. It is lowering the standing of our High School and we cannot keep up the reputation we have gained if we permit it. I think if necessary that in such matter we should not act without the advice of the principal." The matter was referred back to the High School committee.

P. F. Anderson, an energetic footballer, asked that shower baths be erected for the use of those who sustained the reputation of the school on the gridiron field.

He suggested that the hose heretofore used to sluce off the long-haired athletes was too common. The matter was referred to the committee on schools and sites.

The High School classification committee advised in their report:

First, that S. P. Meads should act as principal in the absence of Mr. McChesney.

Second, that there should be six recitation hours instead of five and that the school should close at 3:30 instead of 3 o'clock.

Director Reed thought the work of the teacher of stenography ineffectual without the aid of typewriters and moved that the board purchase one.

The motion was carried.

Director Pearce suggested that the Board order the department mechanic to repair Mr. Draper's room and the order was made.

When the chair called for new business Director Moody arose and proposed a resolution to the effect that it was the sense of the Board that the assessment of Assessor Dalton was just and proper and that they condemned the action of the Supervisors sitting as a Board of Equalization. He further suggested that the Supreme Court be requested to sustain Dalton. His motion was made in jest and received no second.

Superintendent McClymonds recommended the payment of the High School warrants and a resolution was passed ordering them settled.

Chairman Stark of the committee of industrial education reported that the committee was waiting for money from the Council and until they shall have received it they will have nothing to report upon.

The Board thought their secretary (McClymonds) had worked hard and deserved a vacation. A resolution was passed giving him a six weeks leave.

The petition of E. F. Fisher for the position of janitor and watchman of the old High School was referred to the finance committee.

ROYAL
Baking Powder
Absolutely Pure

TO ONE DEAD.

Hers was a soul that cowered from the approach
Of casual converse—her's a will
That judged pure silence pleasure—and for this
She died—to be entirely still.

God knows alone how deeply she had thought
Before she bid her spirit to depart
God knows how many failures wrought
Their harsh despairs within her tender heart.

Yet blame her not, for she was good and wise
Wise in God's ways, and as His angels good—
Better that she should be in Paradise
Than live, and living, be misunderstood

Fold the limp hands across the unheaving breast;
Close the white eyelids from the glare of sun.
Let fervent prayers accompany her to rest.
And all the solemn priestly form be done.

And thou Oh Nelly! thy one grief today,
The one great anguish which still tortures thee;
(Invisible to all who loved thee here,
Yet witnessing the sorrow 'round thy bier)
Is that in mortal ears thou canst not say
What peace immortal God has let thee see.

Pittsburg Prostrated by the Furies of the Tempest.

VALUABLE PROPERTY RUINED.

Ships Go Down and a Number of Lives Are Lost.

A WOMAN BLOWN TO DEATH.

Many Exciting Scenes During the Rush of the Winds.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 19.—Last night's storm was the most terrific and destructive that visited this city in many years.

It came without warning at a time when the parks were filled with people and river boats crowded with excursionists.

As far as is known two lives were lost, a score of people injured, two fatally and property damaged to the extent of $100,000.

The dead are. Millie Lindbaugh, a cook on the steamer Lud Keefer, drowned; unknown woman, blown from the point of the bridge.

Those probably fatally injured are: Patrick Shea, fireman West End Electric railway power house; John Adams, conductor Second avenue traction line.

The storm struck the city about 10 o'clock and was over in half an hour.

The rain came down in torrents accompanied by vivid lightning and terrific wind.

Houses were unroofed, trees uprooted and fences and out houses demolished.

So tremendous was the force of the tornado that the steamers Lud Keefer, Little Bill and Arlington were overturned and many barges, coal boats and small craft were torn from their moorings and sent adrift.

The passenger barge Dakota was forced against the Smithfield street bridge, and her side crushed in. She sank in several feet of water.

When the storm struck the Keefer, Captain Keefer, Maye Miller, Millie Lindbaugh, the cook, and two colored chambermaids were on board, but all reached shore in safety except Millie Lindbaugh, who became exhausted and drowned.

The steamer Courier with 100 passengers on board, was swept with water and the passengers became panic-stricken, but Captain Kline succeeded in making a landing at Painter's Mills, and all were discharged from the boat in safety.

BLOWN FROM A BRIDGE.

While the wind was at its height an unknown woman attempted to cross the bridge. She was caught in a whirlwind and blown into the river, and drowned.

Thousands of people were at Schenley Park.

When the storm came on there was a rush for shelter.

The wind has prostrated the electric light wires and several women were seriously shocked by coming in contact with them.

On Second avenue a feed wire was broken and in attempting to repair it Conductor Adams was fatally shocked.

On South Side the large grain elevator of Henderson & Johnson, in course of construction, was almost completely demolished. Heavy iron girders fell on a row of tenements and crushed them, but fortunately the occupants were away from home.

Two freight cars on the Pittsburg & Lake Erie road were blown into the Monongahela river. Portions of the Monongahela and Castle Shannon inclines were carried away by the wind.

On the north side of Alleghen great damage was done to small buildings, and many trees were uprooted in the parks, but as far as is reported no persons were injured.

On Arch street, this city, a new brick building was blown over, crushing a double frame dwelling adjoining, occupied by Mrs. Daly with one child and Mrs. Pryon with three children. They were dug out and are unhurt.

Archibald Schbie was blown into the river This increases the list of the dead to three.

GETS $3000.

Attorney Miller's Suit Against the Klinkners Is Settled.

Attorney H. B. M. Miller won a partial victory this afternoon in his fight to secure fees from the estate of the late Charles A. Klinkner. His petition noted $5,000 as a proper compensation for the service he had performed as attorney for Mrs. Klinkner. He was allowed $3,000 by Judge Frick. Miller made a hard fight and there was considerable difference of opinion among attorneys about town as to the value of the services he rendered. A. A. Moore thought $4,800 was a fair figure. George Reed testified that $3,500 was near the amount he considered correct. B. McFadden named $3,000 as the limit and Attorney Richardson concluded that $2,500 was reasonable.

Miller made a minute inventory in detail of the services he rendered the estate to the time he severed his connection with it. Judge Frick thought it represented an immense amount of labor performed in behalf of the executrix.

Stole From His Sister.

Carlos Whistler disappeared from his home at 827 Campbell street, West Oakland, last Tuesday afternoon. He is supposed to have gone to Yorkville, which is about fifteen miles from Cloverdale. When he left his home he told his mother, Mrs. Thomas Hurd, that he was going to Alameda in search of employment. He departed with a bicycle, $15 and some jewelry belonging to his sister Maude, who has sworn to a warrant for his arrest.

Not Long Separated

The will of Hannah Simmons and her son James E. Simmons, who died a week ago, were filed for probate today. The estates are valued at $25,000 and $5,700 respectively. The devisees are George O. Simmons, of Berkeley; Benjamin F. Simmons of Haywards, and W. H. Simmons of this city. The latter is named as administrator.

CHANGES IN SCHOOLS

The Board of Education Elects a Couple of New Teachers.

REISSUE OF BONDS DISCUSSED.

Vice Principals Selected for the Various Grammar Grades.

McCLYMONDS TO GET A REST.

Dr. Myra Knox Is Selected as the Temporary President.

The Board of Education held its regular monthly meeting last night in their board rooms at the City Hall. President Evans, the chairman had left for the East and a chairman pro tem was necessary. Director Clement nominated Dr. Mrs. Knox and the board displayed their gallantry by electing the lady.

In the chair Dr. Knox was effectual but a mistake had been made in placing her there.

No one know exactly how to address her. She suggested that "Mr. Chairman" was proper but others thought differently, some addressed her as "Mrs. Chairman" others "Mrs. Chairwoman" and altogether considerable time was occupied devising the proper appellation for the pro tem occupant of the chair.

The resignation of Miss Harriet J. Lee of the Cole School was read and accepted. This gave the Board an opportunity to elect two new teachers.

To fill the place made vacant in the Cole school Director McMillan nominated Miss Isabelle Morrison. No other nominations were made and she was unanimously elected.

The proposition to mass the ninth grades in the seventh ward was lost and a ninth grade teacher had to be elected for the Garfield School. Director Moody paid a glowing tribute to Miss Lyda Sparks who had been holding the position as a substitute and placed her name before the Board as a candidate for the regular place.

Director McMullan wanted to know if that before leaving for the East Director Evans had asked him to place in nomination Miss Shortley.

Dicertor McMullan wanted to know if there was not a rule excluding married women from school teaching. As there was none her name was left before the Board.

The roll was called and resulted in the election of Mrs. Shortley by a vote of 7 to 3.

NOW A SUBSTITUTE.

Miss Durant of the Franklin School sent a request for leave of absence and had started for the East with the Knights Templar to visit her mother who was ill and had sent for her. The rule in such cases was adverse to the actions of the teachers, but Director Moody said that he had told the teacher that he undoubtedly thought the Board would grant her request and under his advice she had gone. The Board considering the circumstances suspended the rule and granted Miss Durant a leave of absence until October 8th.

This necessitated the election of a substitute Director Moody placed in nomination Miss M. A. Smith. No other nominations were made and Miss Smith was unanimously elected to the vacancy.

The Board was in an electing mood and when Mrs. Draper was nominated as an assistant to her husband in the laboratory at the High School everyone was willing. The only question was, "Had she the proper certificate?" No one knew but the motion was carried and Mrs. Draper was declared to be something, no one know what, at a monthly salary of $40.

Director Edwards wanted an assistant in the kindergarten department of the Tompkins School and suggested the name of Miss Margaret Davison at a salary of $40 a month while employed.

Director McMullen moved to amend by making the salary $150 a year.

The Board was with Director Edwards but the rules were against him unless Miss Davison possessed the necessary certificate. No one knew and the matter was compromised by a motion creating the position of assistant kindergarten teacher at the Tompkins School. In the mean time it will be ascertained if Miss Davison is a certificate holder and the election was continued until the next meeting.

THE PIERSON GIFT.

The committee appointed to receive the gift of Mr. Pierson handed in a report. The members expressed their thanks on behalf of the Board of Education to the donor for the gift, spoke of it as an addition to the schools, and added their appreciation of the generous bequest. In accordance resolutions wereadoptednaming the Pierson Photographic Telescope and extending to Mr. Pierson a vote of thanks and an expression of their deep sense of gratification.

Director Clement introduced Mr. Brayton, who had a patent fire extinguisher. Mr. Brayton explained to the Board the use, cost and efficiency of the new device and the chair referred the matter to the committee on furniture and supplies.

THE SCHOOL BONDS.

The Council had sent a request to the Board asking them to express their opinion on the advisibility of refunding the school bonds.

Director Clement was first to gain the attention of the chair. He was in favor of refunding and suggested that a resolution to that effect be passed and transmitted to the Council.

Director Moody thought it not a proper matter for the Board to meddle with and proposed an amendment that the Board resolve to have nothing to do with it.

Director Reed expressed himself in favor of a reissue and thought the Populists should agree with him as they constituted perhaps one-third of the population but did not pay more than one-tenth of the taxes.

Director Moody was conservative and wanted time to think the matter over. Moody in his speech said that "as individuals we may do silly things. We do not want to do silly things as a Board," he said.

Director Friend wanted to know what he meant by silly things and Moody explained to the satisfaction of all.

Director Reed wanted to place the Board on record as in favor of the reissue.

Moody's substitute was lost on a vote of five to five and the original motion was carried on a six to four vote.

Charles Logan had asked permission to photograph the school classes and Dames & Dorsay had asked that the same favor be accorded to them. Some directors talked for one, some for another. Moody was neutral and suggested to "let them hustle." A Henry Clay compromise was effected—Logan was to photograph half the classes, Dames & Dorsay, the other half, the rules and regulations committee to assign to each his share.

VICE PRINCIPALS.

The following were appointed to act as vice principals in the grammar schools:

Clawson—Mrs. Mary G. Ayers.
Cole—Miss A. G. Madden.
Durant—Miss S. J. Hodgden.
Franklin—Miss E. R. Tucker.
Garfield—Miss Abbie S. Phillips.
Grant—Miss Mary C. Ellis.
Grove—Miss M. M. Campbell
Harrison—Miss Anna C. Cordes.
La Fayette—Miss Nellie Cook
Lincoln—Miss J O'Meara
Prescott—Miss Mary C. Heaton.
Sweet—Miss E. W. Hayes.
Tompkins—Miss A S. Walton
Central Evening—Miss L S. Thorpe.

A motion to suspend the rule requiring the teachers to make and file a monthly report of the work to be done and the method of teaching it was introduced and passed.

Edwin L. Knowlton and Nettie Thompson applied for permission to teach in the public schools. Their applications were sent to the committee on credentials.

The requisitions of the principals which had been approved by the supply committee were read and allowed. Everything had been asked for from a box of tooth-picks and two tin buckets to a gross of shoestrings and two hundred pounds of clay.

The institute had been set for the 9th 10th and 11th days of October. The Board decided to declare the 7th and 8th days of the same month a vacation and the proper resolution was passed.

District Attorney Snook sent to the Board his opinion on the teachers' annuity fund. It was but a copy of the act creating the fund.

THE HIGH SCHOOL BOARD.

After the meeting of the Board of Education the High School Board was called to order.

A number of the High School pupils had asked the Board that they be allowed to take special courses. Their request tion in which Secretary McClymonds was met with no small degree of opposi- took the lead. He came from behind his desk and spoke at length. He told how pupils who were unable to keep up in any one study would send to the Board and ask to be excused from taking it.

"Let me take the report of Mr. McChesney," he said, "after the first two months of school and I will tell you every pupil who will make this request and I will further tell just what studies they will want to drop. It is lowering the standing of our High School and we cannot keep up the reputation we have gained if we permit it. I think if necessary that in such matter we should not act without the advice of the principal." The matter was referred back to the High School committee.

P. F. Anderson, an energetic footballer, asked that shower baths be erected for the use of those who sustained the reputation of the school on the gridiron field.

He suggested that the hose heretofore used to sluce off the long-haired athletes was too common. The matter was referred to the committee on schools and sites.

The High School classification committee advised in their report:

First, that S. P. Meads should act as principal in the absence of Mr. McChesney.

Second, that there should be six recitation hours instead of five and that the school should close at 3:30 instead of 3 o'clock.

Director Reed thought the work of the teacher of stenography ineffectual without the aid of typewriters and moved that the board purchase one.

The motion was carried.

Director Pearce suggested that the Board order the department mechanic to repair Mr. Draper's room and the order was made.

When the chair called for new business Director Moody arose and proposed a resolution to the effect that it was the sense of the Board that the assessment of Assessor Dalton was just and proper and that they condemned the action of the Supervisors sitting as a Board of Equalization. He further suggested that the Supreme Court be requested to sustain Dalton. His motion was made in jest and received no second.

Superintendent McClymonds recommended the payment of the High School warrants and a resolution was passed ordering them settled.

Chairman Stark of the committee of industrial education reported that the committee was waiting for money from the Council and until they shall have received it they will have nothing to report upon.

The Board thought their secretary (McClymonds) had worked hard and deserved a vacation. A resolution was passed giving him a six weeks leave.

The petition of E. T. Fisher for the position of janitor and watchman of the old High School was referred to the finance committee.

ROYAL
Baking Powder
Absolutely Pure

TO ONE DEAD.

Here was a soul that cowered from the approach
Of casual converse—her's a will
That judged pure silence pleasure—and for this
She died—to be entirely still.

God knows alone how deeply she had thought
Before she bid her spirit to depart
God knows how many failures wrought
Their harsh despairs within her tender heart.

Yet blame her not, for she was good and wise
Wise in God's ways, and as His ange's good—
Better that she should be in Paradise
Than live, and living, be misunderstood.

Fold the limp hands across the unheaving breast:
Close the white eyelids from the glare of sun
Let fervent prayers accompany her to rest,
And all the solemn priestly form be done.

And thou Oh Nelly! thy one grief today,
The one great anguish which still tortures thee,
(Invisible to all who loved thee here,
Yet witnessing the sorrow 'round thy bier)
Is that in mortal ears thou canst not say
What peace immortal God has let thee see.

VALUABLE PROPERTY RUINED.

Ships Go Down and a Number of Lives Are Lost.

A WOMAN BLOWN TO DEATH.

Many Exciting Scenes During the Rush of the Winds.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 19.—Last night's storm was the most terrific and destructive that visited this city in many years.

It came without warning at a time when the parks were filled with people and river boats crowded with excursionists.

As far as is known two lives were lost, a score of people injured, two fatally and property damaged to the extent of $100,000.

The dead are. Millie Lindbaugh, a cook on the steamer Lud Keefer, drowned; unknown woman, blown from the point of the bridge

Those probably fatally injured are: Patrick Shea, fireman West End Electric railway power house; John Adams, conductor Second avenue traction line.

The storm struck the city about 10 o'clock and was over in half an hour.

The rain came down in torrents accompanied by vivid lightning and terrific wind.

Houses were unroofed, trees uprooted and fences and out houses demolished.

So tremendous was the force of the tornado that the steamers Lud Keefer, Little Bill and Arlington were overturned and many barges, coal boats and small craft were torn from their moorings and sent adrift.

The passenger barge Dakota was forced against the Smithfield street bridge, and her side crushed in. She sank in several feet of water.

When the storm struck the Keefer, Captain Keefer, Maye Miller, Millie Lindbaugh, the cook, and two colored chambermaids were on board, but all reached shore in safety except Millie Lindbaugh, who became exhausted and drowned.

The steamer Courier with 100 passengers on board, was swept with water and the passengers became panic-stricken, but Captain Kline succeeded in making a landing at Painter's Mills, and all were discharged from the boat in safety.

BLOWN FROM A BRIDGE.

While the wind was at its height an unknown woman attempted to cross the bridge. She was caught in a whirlwind and blown into the river, and drowned

Thousands of people were at Schenley Park.

When the storm came on there was a rush for shelter.

The wind has prostrated the electric light wires and several women were seriously shocked by coming in contact with them.

On Second avenue a feed wire was broken and in attempting to repair it Conductor Adams was fatally shocked.

On South Side the large grain elevator of Henderson & Johnson, in course of construction, was almost completely demolished. Heavy iron girders fell on a row of tenements and crushed them, but fortunately the occupants were away from home.

Two freight cars on the Pittsburg & Lake Erie road were blown into the Monongahela river. Portions of the Monongahela and Castle Shannon inclines were carried away by the wind

On the north side of Allegheny great damage was done to small buildings, and many trees were uprooted in the parks, but as far as is reported no persons were injured

On Arch street, this city, a new brick building was blown over, crushing a double frame dwelling adjoining, occupied by Mrs. Daly with one child and Mrs. Pryon with three children. They were dug out and are unhurt.

Archibald Schlie was blown into the river. This increases the list of the dead to three.

GETS $3000.

Attorney Miller's Suit Against the Klinkners Is Settled.

Attorney H. H. M. Miller won a partial victory this afternoon in his fight to secure fees from the estate of the late Charles A. Klinkner. His petition noted $5,000 as a proper compensation for the service he had performed as attorney for Mrs. Klinkner. He was allowed $3,000 by Judge Frick. Miller made a hard fight and there was considerable divergence of opinion among attorneys about town as to the value of the services he rendered. A. A. Moore thought $4 500 was a fair figure. George Reed testified that $3,500 was near the amount he considered correct. B. McFadden named $3,000 as the limit and Attorney Richardson concluded that $2,500 was reasonable.

Miller made a minute inventory in detail of the services he rendered the estate to the time he severed his connection with it. Judge Frick thought it represented an immense amount of labor performed in behalf of the executrix.

Stole From His Sister.

Carlos Whistler disappeared from his home at 827 Campbell street, West Oakland, last Tuesday afternoon. He is supposed to have gone to Yorkville, which is about fifteen miles from Cloverdale. When he left his home he told his mother, Mrs Thomas Hurd, that he was going to Alameda in search of employment. He departed with a bicycle, $15 and some jewelry belonging to his sister Maude, who has sworn to a warrant for his arrest.

Not Long Separated

The will of Hannah Simmons and her son James E. Simmons, who died a week ago, were filed for probate today. The estates are valued at $25,000 and $5,700 respectively. The devisees are George O. Simmons, of Berkeley; Benjamin F. Simmons of Haywards, and W. H. Simmons of this city. The latter is named as administrator.

DIED.

MEDIUMS.

ADVICE AND ASSISTANCE FOR all—Secure a charm and wear diamonds; his parlors are always filled with anxious people seeking reliable information, and every reply is most gratifying. All are pleased. Professor Eugene gives advice on business, speculations, investments, love, courtship, marriage and divorce, settles lovers' quarrels, reunites the separated and causes a speedy and happy marriage with the one of your choice; he locates mines and buried treasures, tells you of your friends and enemies, removes evil influences, gives advice pertaining to lawsuits, locates and recovers old estates. Developing mediums a specialty. The troubled and unfortunate should seek his counsel. Thousands of families long separated, have been reunited by his efforts; thousands of hearts made glad through his truthful predictions; he is the only clairvoyant on earth recognized by the profession as their brightest star; all persons unsuccessful in business, who seem to be unlucky, should visit him, seek his aid, and start aright. Thousands have become wealthy through his advice; he is ever ready to assist those with capital to find a safe and good-paying investment. Young men starting in business will find it greatly to their advantage to consult him on all matters of financial interest to themselves. Professor Eugene should not be classed with the many cheap pretenders who infest cities and bring disrepute to the profession. His past successes in matters of great import are a positive guarantee of his powers to perform the wonders that have made him famous. All are invited to call. Hours 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. TUESDAY.....AUGUST 20, 1895.

A wall comes up from Fresno that the insurance on the court house that was partly burned will not be enough to restore the dome to that structure after all the other repairs have been made. The calamity is not in losing the dome. It was in placing such an excrescence on a public building. In nearly all the lately constructed court houses, the local ambition seems to have been gratified by an immense dome. If there was not much of anything else, a great bulbous wooden tumor of sticks and stucco must be mounted on top of the edifice. It seldom occurs to the local authorities that such a deformity is in wretched taste.

The Latest Discovery.

The report comes from Germany that Dr. Borchers, an eminent scientist, has discovered a way in which the heat energy of coal can be converted into electricity without the use of steam boilers or engines. Many scientists have predicted that some day such a discovery would be made. Dr. Borchers, according to the statement, has "devised a new form of electric battery, the current from which is generated by the conversion of hydrocarbons and carbonic oxide into carbonic acid, or practically, the same reaction that is produced by the combustion of coal." It is further set forth that he has delivered in available form three times as much electrical energy as can be obtained from the same quantity of fuel when used for the production of steam in the most economical manner known.

It is known that in the creation of electricity by the use of coal under steam boilers, not more than from 15 to 20 per cent of the theoretical energy of coal is utilized. From 75 to 80 per cent is wasted. A discovery that can produce three times as much energy from coal without the use of steam would render useless, or nearly so, all the steam engines in the country. Electric motors would drive all the machinery on the land and on the water. The world is waiting for this new demonstration.

Green Corn.

Many tribes of Indians have a great festival when the corn in the ear is ripe for roasting. They celebrate it with dancing and a great deal of impressive pantomime. It is recorded in history that the pilgrims who made the first landing at Plymouth would have starved to death in the following winter had it not been for the supplies of corn which the Indians furnished. We fancy that the Indians would not now hold a green corn festival if the supplies came from some of our local markets, with the certainty that a worm will be found in nearly every ear.

But there is now an Australian lady bug—the scientific name is omitted—that promises to clean out all the worms that infest the green corn and have made it so repulsive that even an Indian would turn away in disgust. Parenthetically it may also be stated that there is another lady bug from Australia now at work in this vicinity. Its mission is to destroy the grey scale found on fruit trees. But it is doing much more. The bug has a small copper colored back with black specks and is only about two-thirds the size of the lady bug frequently found on rose bushes. The larvae of this Australian bug can now be found on many cypress hedges in spots of white like popped corn. Millions have recently been hatched. It may be that this is the bug that makes havoc of the larvae of the worm in the green corn. But it is certain that not only does this Australian bug destroy the grey scale but wherever this insect appears the wooly aphis so destructive to apple trees, entirely disappears. Not a vestige of it will be found in a short time wherever this Australian bug is seen.

It may be also that this is the insect that deals with the corn worm. We are inclined to think it is a different one, because on the lot of the writer, where this bug appeared, apple trees that were white with the wooly aphis last year have not a vestige of that pest now, while the worm is working in the green corn as brisk as ever. It may be that he came too late this year to meddle with the larvae of the corn worm. This corn treatise will be closed by a paragraph contributed by a correspondent of the New York Sun on the art of eating green corn:

"In yesterday's Sun your correspondent 'Physician' tells us how to eat corn. Now let me tell you the way I have been eating it for the past twenty-five years. With a sharp knife I score the entire ear by beginning at the smaller end of the ear and drawing my knife down through each row, cutting each kernel in the center, but not removing it from the cob. To score the ear will take about a minute, but it is time well spent, for when you come to eat the corn the nutritious pulp will pop into your mouth and the indigestible hull will remain on the cob. It is the leathery little hull that causes the rumpus with people who have not the digestive organs of an ostrich, but by following my method of eating this delicious grain many a person who has always looked upon an ear of corn as being akin to a dynamite bomb may 'eat and live.' Don't cut too deep and don't bite too hard. A little practice is all that is necessary."

Desperate Cuba.

A recent dispatch announces that Gen. Gomez had forbidden the sugar planters to continue grinding the cane. One planter offered him $25,000 for the privilege of working up his crop of cane. Gomez refused, saying that he was not after money, but would not allow the sugar estates to grind under any consideration. He also gave notice that should anybody disobey his order their property would be promptly burned to the ground. If the sugar crop is destroyed Cuba will reach the last stage of impoverishment.

All Cuban news is conflicting. There are not less than 15,000 insurgents in the field. These men are nominally opposed by about 50,000 Spanish troops. It is reported that 30,000 more are to be sent over in October. The diseases now raging carry off about 3000 Spanish troops a month, while very little havoc is made among the rebels, who have been hardened by acclimation. These are in a fair way to augment their numbers to 25,000 fighting men as soon as the cool weather sets in.

That is about the distribution of forces as to numbers. But the rebels have an immense advantage in the choice of the ground, and especially in the background of mountains. Besides they fight in pursuance of a waiting policy. They fight to harass the enemy, and to eventually wear him out. In the insurrection of 1874, there were only about 6000 Cubans engaged on the rebel side. They forced Spain to make a favorable treaty with them. These rebels, who know every inch of the ground, appear to be more than a match for the troops that Spain has placed in the field. There has never been a revolution in Cuba as formidable as the present one.

Some Political Prophesies.

Ex-President Harrison recently made the prediction that the Republicans will win in 1896, and that they will stay in power many years. That will depend upon the policy which Republicans maintain. Harrison himself had a good administration. There was very little fault found with it except as to the tariff. The Republicans had in no respect changed their policy for the last twenty years. Yet they went out of office because the country had decided to try once more the experiment of a Democratic administration. The great issues that brought on the civil war welded the Republican party together, while they disintegrated the opposition. There are no such influences now. The parties are pretty evenly balanced again. There is nothing in the present outlook that indicates more than a probability that the Republicans will triumph in the next national canvass. There is very little to warrant the prediction that either of the great political parties, as they now exist, will have any long lease of power.

Ex-Secretary Whitney appears to be just as confident that the Democrats will win in the next election. In his view, Mr. Cleveland is becoming more popular with the return of national prosperity. Possibly he may personally recover much of his old popularity. But that would not carry his party into power. There is no probability that he will ever be placed at the head of the Democratic ticket again, although there is a manifest feeling among his former supporters that he is their strongest man. Whitney is talking for Cleveland with a wonderful amount of self-abnegation just now.

That Tacoma Sermon.

A dispatch to the Chicago Tribune reports that two ministers of Tacoma recently ascended Mount Tacoma 14,444 feet above the level of the sea, and each preached a sermon from the top of the mountain. The subject of each was "Christ's Sermon on the Mount."

The audience consisted of two dozen mountain climbers. Some of them were vocalists and hymns were sung. There was an arrangement to have homing pigeons take the sermons down after they had been delivered, but the smoke from the forest fires prevented.

Now this is all very well as an example of opera bouffe. It might also have been a cheap way of gaining local notoriety. But the Christ of history did not ascend a high mountain for the purpose of making a sensation. He did not need homing pigeons to take his sermon down to the people. He went up on the mountain side and sat down and taught because the people followed him there—not two dozen mountain climbers, but many thousands. In only one instance is it recorded that he ever ascended a high mountain, and then it was not voluntary. It is not likely that the Sermon on the Mount would have any new significance because two sentimental ministers chose to ascend a higher mountain and expound it there. The divine teacher never set an example of mountain climbing or of sermonizing on a mountain as a mere matter of sentiment. But it is written that on lower heights he had compassion on the multitude.

There are now not less than 10,400 miles of street railroad in the United States on which cars are operated by electricity. The horse railroads have rapidly disappeared so that there are now only 1900 miles operated in that way. Nearly all the electric railroads are embraced in the trolley system. A street railway man recently made this statement to the Washington Star:

"It has been estimated that electric and cable railways have displaced in the United States no less than 275,000 horses and the movement has not yet stopped. It is figured that that number of horses would require about 125,000 bushels of corn or oats a day. A decrease of 125,000 bushels a day in the consumption of corn and oats is enough to appreciably affect prices of those grains. It amounts to 45,000,000 bushels a year. Furthermore, the loss of this commercial demand for these coarse grains in the cities means a loss of tonnage for the railroads of about 62,500 car loads."

A Mexican newspaper evidently voices the sentiment of all the Central and South American states in this declaration:

"A great political revolution, which emancipated the Latin-American from European domination and control, will not be complete until the Europeans abandon the pretense to dominate politically any portion of this hemisphere.

"It is time for the people of the three Americas to make a stand against European aggression. Trade and social and friendly relations with European nations this part of the world desires, but not reconquest. That will not be tolerated. Latin-America wants no American, British, German or French "protectorates," and, least of all, absorption. Europe is too greedy. She has partitioned all Africa's might continent and now menaces the territorial rights of Latin-American people. Europe had best retire from any pretense of land-holding on this hemisphere."

It would be a remarkable circumstance if Judge McKenna should be swept off the bench on application of the same ruling made in the case of Senator Ransom's appointment as Minister to Mexico. His office was not created during his senatorial term. But the emoluments were increased. Judge McKenna's office was not created during his term in the House according to one construction. He was appointed as the successor of Judge Sawyer. Was he one of the nine circuit judges provided by the law which was enacted during his term in the House? Were the salaries of these judges provided at the same time? The clause of the constitution affecting the case reads as follows: "No Senator or Representative shall during the time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil office under the authority of the United States, which shall have been created or the emoluments whereof shall have been increased during such time."

The Yosemite pioneer, Hutchins, bobs up very often. One of his claims to equity has been that he was an original preemptor of the Yosemite valley. That was not true because there could at that time be no preemption on unsurveyed Government land. Now this land was not surveyed. It was especially reserved. Hutchins squatted on it. If surveys had been extended over the valley and the land been placed on the market, Hutchins might have had an equitable right to buy a quarter section. When he was paid $25,000 for his color of title, which had not even a color, he ought then to have been prohibited from living in the valley where he has made so much trouble.

The complaint of a patron of the High school touching the department of physical culture does not seem to have much of a basis. It does not seem to have been made for any good purpose, but rather in the spirit of captiousness. It is not at all likely that this department which is in charge of a competent and discreet teacher will degenerate to anything that could be objectionable to fair minded people.

NOTES AND EXCERPTS.

The Defender is a great boat. The world waited until 1895 for this smart sloop to discover a previously uncharted and unsuspected sandbar at the entrance to Newport harbor. She got aground, but she located the obstruction. The Newport City Council ought to reward the Defender's explorations with a vote of thanks, the Coast Survey ought to make her an honorary member, the United States Hydrographic Office ought to recognize her services, and the Old Colony Steamboat Company ought to give her a silver punch bowl.—Sun.

A steamer running on rails is a curious sight to be seen near Copenhagen. Two lakes are separated by a narrow strip of land on which rails are laid running into the water on either side. The steamer which is forty-four feet long, and carries seventy passengers, is guided to the rails by piles like a ferry slip, it has wheels on either side which fit the rails, and is driven full speed up one side of the incline and down the other into the water on the other side.

There died recently in Moscow a man who in the last twenty years gave $5,000,000 to charity. He was State Councilor Jermakoff, who came from a poor family. His first public act which excited general attention was the purchase of the freedom of all the serfs living in his native village. This cost him $120,000. He came to the rescue of the poor people time and time again when the harvests failed. His funeral was one of the largest ever seen in the old burial place of the Russian czars, thousands of the poor of the capital following the philanthropist's body to the grave.

There are twenty women studying for the degree of Ph. D. at the University of Gottingen, where our American Miss Maltby recently took her degree cum laude. Christine Nilsson went to Sweden recently to attend the wedding of a nephew, which occurred in the little village near which she was born. The young man will eventually inherit the farm on which the celebrated singer first saw the light of day. She bought it with almost the first money she earned with her voice and presented the land to her eldest brother, her parents then being dead.

A Cool Sea Captain.

A good story is told of a sea captain who died not long ago, and who was formerly in command of a ship in which passengers were carried from London to Lisbon. On one occasion the ship caught fire and the passengers and crew were compelled to hurriedly take to the boats. The captain was perfectly cool throughout all the confusion and fright of debarkation, and at last everyone but himself was got safely into the boats.

By the time he was ready to follow the passengers were almost wild with fear and excitement. Instead of hurrying down the ladder, the captain called out to the sailors to hold on a minute, and taking a cigar from his pocket, coolly lighted it with a bit of burning rope that had fallen from the rigging at his feet. Then he descended with deliberation and gave the order to push off.

"How could you stop to light a cigar at such a moment?" he was asked afterwards, when some of the passengers were talking over their escape.

"Because," he said, "I saw if I did not do something to divert the minds of those in the boat, there was likely to be a panic, and, overcrowded as it was, there was danger of the boat being upset. The act took but a moment, but it attracted the attention of everbody. I was not nearly so unconcerned as I seemed to be, but was in reality in a fever of excitement. My little plan succeeded. You all forgot yourselves because you were thinking about my curious behavior, and we got off safely."

TUESDAY.....AUGUST 20, 1895

A wail comes up from Fresno that the insurance on the court house that was partly burned will not be enough to restore the dome to that structure after all the other repairs have been made. The calamity is not in losing the dome. It was in placing such an excrescence on a public building. In nearly all the lately constructed court houses, the local ambition seems to have been gratified by an immense dome. If there was not much of anything else, a great bulbous wooden tumor of sticks and stucco must be mounted on top of the edifice. It seldom occurs to the local authorities that such a deformity is in wretched taste.

The Latest Discovery.

The report comes from Germany that Dr. Borchers, an eminent scientist, has discovered a way in which the heat energy of coal can be converted into electricity without the use of steam boilers or engines. Many scientists have predicted that some day such a discovery would be made. Dr. Borchers, according to the statement, has "devised a new form of electric battery, the current from which is generated by the conversion of hydrocarbons and carbonic oxide into carbonic acid, or practically, the same reaction that is produced by the combustion of coal." It is further set forth that he has delivered in available form three times as much electrical energy as can be obtained from the same quantity of fuel when used for the production of steam in the most economical manner known.

It is known that in the creation of electricity by the use of coal understeam boilers, not more than from 15 to 20 per cent of the theoretical energy of coal is utilized. From 75 to 80 per cent is wasted. A discovery that can produce three times as much energy from coal without the use of steam would render useless, or nearly so, all the steam engines in the country. Electric motors would drive all the machinery on the land and on the water. The world is waiting for this new demonstration.

Green Corn.

Many tribes of Indians have a great festival when the corn in the ear is ripe for roasting. They celebrate it with dancing and a great deal of impressive pantomime. It is recorded in history that the pilgrims who made the first landing at Plymouth would have starved to death in the following winter had it not been for the supplies of corn which the Indians furnished. We fancy that the Indians would not now hold a green corn festival if the supplies came from some of our local markets, with the certainty that a worm will be found in nearly every ear.

But there is now an Australian lady bug—the scientific name is omitted—that promises to clean out all the worms that infest the green corn and have made it so repulsive that even an Indian would turn away in disgust. Parenthetically it may also be stated that there is another lady bug from Australia now at work in this vicinity. Its mission is to destroy the grey scale found on fruit trees. But it is doing much more. The bug has a small copper colored back with black specks and is only about two-thirds the size of the lady bug frequently found on rose bushes. The larvae of this Australian bug can now be found on many cypress hedges in spots of white like popped corn. Millions have recently been hatched. It may be that this is the bug that makes havoc of the larvae of the worm in the green corn. But it is certain that not only does this Australian bug destroy the grey scale but wherever this insect appears the wooly aphis so destructive to apple trees, entirely disappears. Not a vestige of it will be found in a short time wherever this Australian bug is seen.

It may be also that this is the insect that deals with the corn worm. We are inclined to think it is a different one, because on the lot of the writer, where this bug appeared, apple trees that were white with the wooly aphis last year have not a vestige of that pest now, while the worm is working in the green corn as brisk as ever. It may be that he came too late this year to meddle with the larvae of the corn worm. This corn treatise will be closed by a paragraph contributed by a correspondent of the New York Sun on the art of eating green corn:

"In yesterday's Sun your correspondent 'Physician' tells us how to eat corn. Now let me tell you the way I have been eating it for the past twenty-five years. With a sharp knife I score the entire ear by beginning at the smaller end of the ear and drawing my knife down through each row, cutting each kernel in the center, but not removing it from the cob. To score the ear will take about a minute, but it is time well spent, for when you come to eat the corn the nutritious pulp will pop into your mouth and the indigestible hull will remain on the cob. It is the leathery little hull that causes the rumpus with people who have not the digestive organs of an ostrich, but by following my method of eating this delicious grain many a person who has always looked upon an ear of corn as being akin to a dynamite bomb may 'eat and live.' Don't cut too deep and don't bite too hard. A little practice is all that is necessary."

Desperate Cuba.

A recent dispatch announces that Gen Gomez had forbidden the sugar planters to continue grinding the cane. One planter offered him $25,000 for the privilege of working up his crop of cane. Gomez refused, saying that he was not after money, but would not allow the sugar estates to grind under any consideration. He also gave notice that should anybody disobey his order their property would be promptly burned to the ground. If the sugar crop is destroyed Cuba will reach the last stage of impoverishment.

All Cuban news is conflicting. There are not less than 15,000 insurgents in the field. These men are nominally opposed by about 50,000 Spanish troops. It is reported that 30,000 more are to be sent over in October. The diseases now raging carry off about 3000 Spanish troops a month, while very little havoc is made among the rebels, who have been hardened by acclimation. These are in a fair way to augment their numbers to 25,000 fighting men as soon as the cool weather sets in.

That is about the distribution of forces as to numbers. But the rebels have an immense advantage in the choice of the ground, and especially in the background of mountains. Besides they fight in pursuance of a waiting policy. They fight to harass the enemy, and to eventually wear him out. In the insurrection of 1874, there were only about 6000 Cubans engaged on the rebel side. They forced Spain to make a favorable treaty with them. These rebels, who know every inch of the ground, appear to be more than a match for the troops that Spain has placed in the field. There has never been a revolution in Cuba as formidable as the present one.

Some Political Prophesies.

Ex-President Harrison recently made the prediction that the Republicans will win in 1896, and that they will stay in power many years. That will depend upon the policy which Republicans maintain. Harrison himself had a good administration. There was very little fault found with it except as to the tariff. The Republicans had in no respect changed their policy for the last twenty years. Yet they went out of office because the country had decided to try once more the experiment of a Democratic administration. The great issues that brought on the civil war welded the Republican party together, while they disintegrated the opposition. There are no such influences now. The parties are pretty evenly balanced again. There is nothing in the present outlook that indicates more than a probability that the Republicans will triumph in the next national canvass. There is very little to warrant the prediction that either of the great political parties, as they now exist, will have any long lease of power.

Ex-Secretary Whitney appears to be just as confident that the Democrats will win in the next election. In his view, Mr. Cleveland is becoming more popular with the return of national prosperity. Possibly he may personally recover much of his old popularity. But that would not carry his party into power. There is no probability that he will ever be placed at the head of the Democratic ticket again, although there is a manifest feeling among his former supporters that he is their strongest man. Whitney is talking for Cleveland with a wonderful amount of self-abnegation just now.

That Tacoma Sermon.

A dispatch to the Chicago Tribune reports that two ministers of Tacoma recently ascended Mount Tacoma 14,444 feet above the level of the sea, and each preached a sermon from the top of the mountain. The subject of each was "Christ's Sermon on the Mount."

The audience consisted of two dozen mountain climbers. Some of them were vocalists and hymns were sung. There was an arrangement to have homing pigeons take the sermons down after they had been delivered, but the smoke from the forest fires prevented.

Now this is all very well as an example of opera bouffe. It might also have been a cheap way of gaining local notoriety. But the Christ of history did not ascend a high mountain for the purpose of making a sensation. He did not need homing pigeons to take his sermon down to the people. He went up on the mountain side and sat down and taught because the people followed him there—not two dozen mountain climbers, but many thousands. In only one instance is it recorded that he ever ascended a high mountain, and then it was not voluntary. It is not likely that the Sermon on the Mount would have any new significance because two sentimental ministers chose to ascend a higher mountain and expound it there. The divine teacher never set an example of mountain climbing or of sermonizing on a mountain as a mere matter of sentiment. But it is written that on lower heights he had compassion on the multitude.

There are now not less than 10,400 miles of street railroad in the United States on which cars are operated by electricity. The horse railroads have rapidly disappeared so that there are now only 1900 miles operated in that way. Nearly all the electric railroads are embraced in the trolley system. A street railway man recently made this statement to the Washington Star:

"It has been estimated that electric and cable railways have displaced in the United States no less than 275,000 horses. [illegible]

A Mexican newspaper evidently voices the sentiment of all the Central and South American states in this declaration:

"A great political revolution, which emancipated the Latin-American from European domination and control, will not be complete until the Europeans abandon the pretense to dominate politically any portion of this hemisphere.

"It is time for the people of the three Americas to make a stand against European aggression. Trade and social and friendly relations with European nations this part of the world desires, but not reconquest. That will not be tolerated. Latin-America wants no American, British, German or French 'protectorates,' and, least of all, absorption. Europe is too greedy. She has partitioned all Africa's might continent and now menaces the territorial rights of Latin-American people. Europe had best retire from any pretense of land-holding on this hemisphere."

It would be a remarkable circumstance if Judge McKenna should be swept off the bench on application of the same ruling made in the case of Senator Ransom's appointment as Minister to Mexico. His office was not created during his senatorial term. But the emoluments were increased. Judge McKenna's office was not created during his term in the House according to one construction. He was appointed as the successor of Judge Sawyer. Was he one of the nine circuit judges provided by the law which was enacted during his term in the House? Were the salaries of these judges provided at the same time? The clause of the constitution affecting the case reads as follows: "No Senator or Representative shall during the time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil office under the authority of the United States, which shall have been created or the emoluments whereof shall have been increased during such time."

The Yosemite pioneer, Hutchins, bobs up very often. One of his claims to equity has been that he was an original preemptor of the Yosemite valley. That was not true because there could at that time be no preemption on unsurveyed Government land. Now this land was not surveyed. It was especially reserved. Hutchins squatted on it. If surveys had been extended over the valley and the land been placed on the market, Hutchins might have had an equitable right to buy a quarter section. When he was paid $25,000 for his color of title, which had not even a color, he ought then to have been prohibited from living in the valley where he has made so much trouble.

The complaint of a patron of the High school touching the department of physical culture does not seem to have much of a basis. It does not seem to have been made for any good purpose but rather in the spirit of captiousness. It is not at all likely that this department which is in charge of a competent and discreet teacher will degenerate to anything that could be objectionable to fair minded people.

A steamer running on rails is a curious sight to be seen near Copenhagen. Two lakes are separated by a narrow strip of land on which rails are laid running into the water on either side. The steamer, which is forty-four feet long, and carries seventy passengers, is guided to the rails by piles like a ferry slip, it has wheels on either side which fit the rails, and is driven full speed up one side of the incline and down the other into the water on the other side.

He came to the rescue of the poor people time and time again when the harvests failed. His funeral was one of the largest ever seen in the old burial place of the Russian czars, thousands of the poor of the capital following the philanthropist's body to the grave.

A Cool Sea Captain

A good story is told of a sea captain who died not long ago, and who was formerly in command of a ship in which passengers were carried from London to Lisbon. On one occasion the ship caught fire and the passengers and crew were compelled to hurriedly take to the boats. The captain was perfectly cool throughout all the confusion and fright of debarkation, and at last everyone but himself was got safely into the boats.

By the time he was ready to follow the passengers were almost wild with fear and excitement. Instead of hurrying down the ladder, the captain called out to the sailors to hold on a minute and taking a cigar from his pocket, coolly lighted it with a bit of burning rope that had fallen from the rigging at his feet. Then he descended with deliberation and gave the order to push off.

"How could you stop to light a cigar at such a moment?" he was asked afterwards, when some of the passengers were talking over their escape.

"Because," he said, "I saw if I did not do something to divert the minds of those in the boat there was likely to be a panic, and, overcrowded as it was, there was danger of the boat being upset. The act took but a moment, but it attracted the attention of everybody. I was not nearly so unconcerned as I seemed to be, but was in reality in a fever of excitement. My little plan succeeded. You all forgot yourselves because you were thinking about my curious behavior, and we got off safely."

Improvements and Changes Come Up Before the Council.

MESSAGES FROM THE MAYOR.

Special Foremen Wanted by the Superintendent of Streets.

A NUMBER OF ORDINANCES.

Sidewalk Protests and the Water Question Bobs Up.

At last night's meeting of the Council all the members were present and the waste of water at Alvarado by the Contra Costa Water Company came in for another scoring at the hands of several representative citizens.

The matter came up when the following resolution was introduced by Mr. Bassett:

"Resolved, That the Oakland Water Company be and is hereby authorized to connect its mains with all hydrants of the city of Oakland east of the east line of Oakland avenue and the western shore of the estuary and Lake Merritt, for the purpose of supplying water for fires, street sprinkling and sewer flushing, also to supply public squares and buildings belonging to the City of Oakland, except school buildings.

"Resolved, That the Contra Costa Water Company be and is hereby directed to disconnect their mains with each of said hydrants, public buildings and public squares upon notification by the chairman of the Committee on Fire and Water of the City Council.

The chair said that the proper way would be to refer the resolution to a committee under the rules.

Mr. Bassett said they were not springing the rules upon everything and several resolutions had been rushed through without any difficulty. Besides he had, he said, several gentlemen whom he would like the Council to hear on the subject if they had not gone away.

The chair asked if there was any objection.

Mr. Towle moved that the gentlemen be heard, and there was no objection to the extension of the courtesy.

Mr. Bassett then called W. A. Jacobs, but the latter did not respond. He next called P. E. Dalton, and that gentleman came forward and was sworn.

He was asked whether he had lately been at Alvarado and what he had seen with respect to the water supply at that place, together with a variety of questions by Mr. Bassett, to all of which he answered as follows:

"I was at Alvarado recently. I saw a great supply of water near the Oakland Water Company's works."

Mr. Bassett—Did you see any other water?

Dalton—I saw other machinery working, pumping out of four or five wells. I heard it said that the pumping was done by the old water company, the Contra Costa Water Company. There was quite a body of water coming from the pumps, estimated at 2,000,000 or 3,000,000 gallons a day. It was pumped into the bay. I saw where it was pumped. I understood it was being pumped by the Contra Costa Company. I could not tell the object of the pumping. I heard that the object was to lessen the supply of the wells of the Oakland Water Company; that is what the people said.

Mr. Capell—From what you saw did you think anybody was pumping to weaken the supply of the Oakland Water Company? The old company has a reservoir at San Leandro, haven't they? They have no necessity of pumping water at Alvarado?

Mr. Dalton replied that the Contra Costa Company does own the reservoir referred to and that there seemed to be no reason for the Alvarado pumping.

Mr. Capell—That water does not come this way?

Mr. Dalton replied that it does not.

Mr. Manuel—Did the pumping make the Dingee supply of water weak?

Mr. Dalton—They said it did not.

Mr. Bassett—It is not what the pumping does but what they try to do.

Mr. Brosnahan—I can't see what this has to do with the resolution introduced. We have heard it all before. I have read it before in the speech of that great anti-monopoly, anti-railroad man, G. W. Baker at the tabernacle the other night that was published in the papers.

Mr. Heitmann said there were some citizens present who ought to be heard on the subject.

Mr. Bassett suggested that perhaps everybody had not read the speech referred to.

Mr. Brosnahan said he guessed everybody of intelligence had because the Tribune and Enquirer that published it found their way into nearly every place in Oakland.

Mr. Manuel—Any objections?

Mr. Brosnahan—Oh, I have no objections, only I don't see what this has got to do with the resolution.

Mr. Capell said he thought the matter ought to go before the committee. He did not want to stay there till midnight.

Mr. Brosnahan—I am willing to hear everything, although the insurance companies came here a short time ago with a request and they were choked off.

Mr. Towle said he was always willing, even if it did keep them a little late, to give citizens a chance to be heard.

HENRY EVERS SPEAKS.

Henry Evers then appeared, and in response to questions from Mr. Bassett said: "Sunday week twenty-five or thirty citizens, and I was one of them, were invited to go to the Dingee Water Works. We saw the pumps working. Afterwards we were invited to go to a place near by, where we heard engines working. We saw a great volume of water pumped into a flume and then into the marsh. The flume was 24 inches wide. There were fifteen inches of water running in it. I didn't estimate the quantity of water. Some said there were three million gallons a day running through. The water went from a flume into a ditch on the marsh. I saw no irrigation there. It is very wet around there. The three pipes I saw were of very good size. They were leading to the house where the pumping was done. There was an engineer who came out of the house as we started to go in. He closed the door behind him and said: 'No one allowed in here.' I think some of the gentlemen who were close to him tried to enter the house. We talked some as to who was pumping the water. I don't know whether it was the Contra Costa Water Company that was doing it or not."

J. F. W. Sohst was next called, and in response to questions by Mr. Bassett said:

"I was at the water works at Alvarado last Sunday week. I saw the pumps outside of the Oakland Water Company's plant. I saw the water running into the swamps. The measure taken enabled them to calculate that three million gallons a day were being pumped from the wells. I saw pipes from four different wells running into the building. I tried every pipe and you could hear the water running through it. The water came out of the glue factory and was run down into the swamp. The wells were a block and a half from the Dingee water works and the wells were close to the Dingee water works, next to the creek. They had a threshing machine engine attached to a pipe but Mr. Boardman said they had stopped it at 11 A. M. and we got there at 3 P. M. The common expression was that the Contra Costa Water Company was wasting the water. We all concluded that the reason why they are doing this was to draw the water away from the Dingee Water Company and that it was being done by the Contra Costa Water Company.

Mr. Towle—As a citizen and property owner, from your observation, do you think that the Dingee Water Company has water to protect the City of Oakland?

Mr. Sohst—I think it has. There was a big stream rushing into the reservoir, and when it enters the reservoir it is like a small creek. It runs at quite a depth. It runs across a beam. When it ran against the beam I could see and hear it had a great force. When we went into the building there was 55 pounds pressure on the engine. The engineer raised the pressure in a minute to 57 or 58 pounds.

Mr. Bassett—Were they running all the pumps?

Mr. Sohst—They were running one pump. Mr. Dingee has two pumps. He had only one of the boilers fired up.

Mr. Brosnahan—You don't know of your own personal knowledge who owns or who was working the pumps.

Mr. Sohst—I don't know, but I saw an account by a man named Smith who said that he was doing the pumping, and I know he isn't. I take the Oakland Water Company's water. We asked the Contra Costa Water Company to do fair by us, to give us good water. I had to protect my children from drinking the Contra Costa water. I told them to drink milk. Now that we get the Oakland Water Company's water I told my children that they could drink all the water they wanted. It is our privilege to get the best water we can. Alameda was built up on artesian well water. People would not stop over here. They said, 'Your water is not good and we will go where we can get good water.'

Mr. Brosnahan—Still you can't say that it was the Contra Costa Water Company that was doing this pumping?

Mr. Sohst—The people say it was the Contra Costa Company.

Mr. Dow—Ought we to give all the water hydrants to the Oakland Water Company?

Mr. Sohst—I used to occupy that seat (indicating that of Mr. Marshall). I took the responsibility of my acts. I always took the side I thought best. I am not going to tell you what to do.

Mack Webber was the next to appear before the Council.

"I indorse," he said, "what has been said by those who preceded me. I am ready to answer any questions you may ask."

Mr. Brosnahan asked whether he had heard what Mr. Sohst had said and Mr. Webber replied that he had.

Mr. Dow—Do you think we ought to give all the hydrants to the Oakland Water Company?

Mr. Webber—If left to me I would not do it. I would make an equitable division. I believe both companies should be sustained.

Mr. Bassett—If you divided the hydrants between the companies and found out that one of the companies went and tried to pump the water away from the other, don't you think that something ought to be done?

Mr. Webber—I should not like to suggest a remedy. I should like to do something. I think it wicked to wantonly waste the good water of Alvarado. Any more questions?

Mr. Brosnahan—I wanted to know if they knew who owns the pumps which were doing this pumping at Alvarado. Perhaps you know?

Mr. Webber said he did not know.

Mr. Bassett moved that the rules be suspended and the resolution passed, but this was defeated by the following vote:

Ayes—Bassett, Dow, Heitmann, Watkinson—4.

Nays—Brosnahan, Buckland, Capell, Marshall, Mott, Towle, Manuel—7.

The resolution then went to the Water Committee under the rules.

NOW REGULAR WORK

The question of making the maximum salary of foremen engaged in the grading of streets under the Superintendent of Streets, $4 per day, created quite a discussion.

Mr. Towle wanted to know how many foremen would be required. Possibly there should be one foreman for every gang, but there might be four gangs, there might be a dozen gangs, there might be fifty gangs.

Mr. Brosnahan said that the suggestion had been made by the Superintendent of Streets.

Superintendent of Streets Miller said that at present four foremen are employed at a salary of $2 50 each per day. Sometimes it is necessary to retain experts and they are entitled to the wages paid by contractors.

Mr. Towle said that they are working now for $2.50 each. It seemed to him that when a maximum rate was established it would be difficult to get them to work for a lesser amount. When special foremen are required he thought they ought to be appointed by the Council.

Superintendent of Streets Miller said that would require a special appointment for every special job.

Mr. Heitmann said that in some jobs special skilled foremen are required. They are not required in the redressing of San Pablo avenue. Less skillful men could be got for the low price, but to get good men good wages had to be paid.

Mr. Towle said that two-thirds of San Pablo avenue had been dressed before.

Mr. Capell said he had a man in East Oakland who had been foreman but who had never received more than $2.50 a day and he was perfectly willing to work for those rates. His name was James Mulgrew. "He's got a wife and ten children," said Mr. Capell, "and that is not what every person has."

Mr. Heitmann said Mulgrew was not a constructor, but has simply been looking after men cleaning streets. That he considered no hard work.

Mr. Bassett said the Superintendent of Streets says he has four foremen now over the streets. Last year the assistant superintendent of streets overlooked the men himself. No bosses were then employed, and there ought not to be. Seventh and Franklin streets, to be employed when the assistant superintendent of streets ought to do the work himself. Holmes used to have the men fixed on blocks so that he could watch them. These times are inflicted with too much bossism. Several years ago there was a sewer put in on Harrison street. Inquiry was made as to the cost of superintendence. The engineer got a salary or fees, the superintendent and assistant were getting salary, and it was costing the city $28 a day and there were only two men at work. We would be better off if there were more work and less bossism.

Mr. Capell reiterated that Holmes made a good assistant superintendent.

Mr. Towle made a motion to refer back to the Auditing and Finance Committee. The motion was lost by the following vote:

Ayes—Buckland, Capell, Marshall, Towle, Manuel—5.

Nays—Bassett, Brosnahan, Dow, Heitmann, Mott, Watkinson—6.

Mr. Bassett said that he wanted it understood that the salary was to be the maximum, but the superintendent is not required to pay it in every instance.

Mr. Mott said $4 was the limit. The Superintendent of Streets must be trusted as to his judgment.

Mr. Towle said he thought it opened up the avenues for the purpose of increasing the expense in salaries.

The resolution was then adopted the only votes against it being Messrs. Capell and Towle.

PETITIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS.

Communications were read as follows:

From the Mayor, suggesting the segregation of refuse and garbage, thus enabling ashes to be used wherever needed inside the city limits, while garbage proper could be taken out of the city. Filed.

From the Mayor, referring to the fact that the minutes of the police court, for various lengths of time in the years from 1889 up to a short time ago in 1895, have not been written up and suggesting the appointment of a clerk at a salary not to exceed $100 a month to do the necessary writing, the work to consume not more than three months. Finance committee.

From the Mayor, setting forth the necessity of employing landscape gardeners for the purpose of beautifying the public parks. The mayor set forth that he was now on file offers of donations of plants for the parks. He recommended the employment of two landscape gardeners at a salary not to exceed $100 a month each for the erection of fountains and benches in each park. Public Improvement Committee.

From the committee on the disposition of garbage setting forth that it had entered into an agreement with A. B. Tennant at the rate of $135 a week for the removal of garbage; that it was an expensive arrangement, but that it covered a period of only two weeks, and recommending that the Superintendent of Streets be authorized to burn all refuse in the dump quarters at an expense not to exceed $100. Filed.

From C. M. Olney and others to the sidewalking of Pinney street between Oakland and Lake avenue. Street Committee.

From Clara Hawes, for a sidewalk at Sixth street and Oak street by private contract. Street Committee.

From J. S. White for a sidewalk on Twenty-fifth between Thirteenth and Fifteenth avenues. Street Committee.

From Mrs. C. Schnoor, to remove a hydrant from the northwest corner of Thirteenth avenue and Eighteenth because of the puddle which it creates. Fire and Water Committee.

From Hugh Craig setting forth that the water pressure at the southwest corner of Adeline and Eighth streets is insufficient to raise the water to an attic 20 feet high that at 6 A. M. the pressure is from 35 to 39 pounds and at 7 P. M. from 1 to 7 pounds. The readings were taken on the 3rd inst. Fire and Water Committee.

From W. E. Barnard, setting forth the advisability of having the Board of Public Works instruct the Superintendent of streets regarding the improvement of Twelfth and Fourteenth streets. Street Committee.

From the Board of Public Works, in the matter of abating a pool at Sixteenth street and Seventh avenue, recommending that the city procure an abstract of title to the property in question. Street Committee.

From the Board of Public Works, stating that an ordinance similar to the one referred by the Council to that body relating to the construction of sewers is now before the Council. Street Committee.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolutions were disposed of as follows:

Ordering the payment of the claim of D. G. Brownell.

That the Board of Public Works direct the Street Superintendent to allow $2 50 instead of $4 for inspectors of sewer work when the work is done by a public contractor. Mr. Dow thought that the Council has no right to compensation in such matters. The resolution was adopted.

Requiring the Board of Public Works to instruct the Street Superintendent to repair the sewers at the foot of Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets inside the railroad track. Adopted.

Requiring the City Engineer to prepare for and deliver to the Superintendent of Streets a map showing the streets and all public improvements. Adopted.

Rescinding the resolution of intention for the sidewalking of Perry street from Oakland avenue to Chetwood street and relieving the owners from public contract. Adopted.

Sewering East Fifteenth street from Twenty-second avenue to the sewer in the alley between Twenty-second and Twenty-third avenue. Adopted.

Rescinding a resolution of intention for the sidewalking of Eighth street from Magnolia so as to provide for the south side of Eighth street between Filbert and Linden. Adopted.

Authorizing a number of lights in various parts of the city. In response to a question Mr. Heitmann said that a conference of Councilmen who needed lights had been called for; that it was decided that fifty lights ought to be secured, and that of that number 25 were contemplated under the resolution, leaving 25 more lights for Councilmen who had need of them in other districts. Adopted.

RESOLUTIONS OF INTENTION.

Resolutions of intention were disposed of as follows:

Sidewalking with cement Eighth street from Filbert to Linden. Adopted.

LIQUOR LICENSES.

Liquor licenses were granted as follows: Eichwede, Muhr & Co., 853 Adeline street, Henry Werking, 879 Washington street; Connolly & Dooley, 1747 Seventh street; Henry Martin, 382 East Twelfth street; Peter Becker and Jos. Schmidt, 479 Seventh street; D. T. McCarthy, 1323 Fourteenth street; R. C. Schacht, 602 Franklin; Jacob Powell, 674 Broadway; J. H. Murray, 1769 Sixteenth street; John Slavich, 910 Broadway; A. Jorgenson, 920 Franklin; D. Knobe and Geo. Belesboek, 473 Eleventh street.

LIQUOR LICENSE BONDS.

Liquor license bonds were approved as follows: A. Wettstein, 416 Fourth street; C. Schafer and W. Knox, 323 San Pablo avenue; M. Cicely and N. Milliolav, 836 Broadway; Fred. Peterson, 477 Eighth street; H. Ruedy and J. Thommen, 844 Franklin street; J. H. Cahill, 580 Twelfth street; C. D. O'Gard and W. Boe, Seventh and Franklin streets; H. Cuppels, 553 Broadway; M. Hanley, 1507 Seventh street; C. Mahoney, 825 Broadway.

SIDEWALK PROTESTS.

The protest of J. Crist and others against a sidewalk near the planing mills in East Oakland came up as a special order at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Tom Suden, one of the protestants, said he could not build the sidewalk in question because he did not know where the curb line is. If he should lay the walk now he would probably receive ten feet more ground than he is entitled to.

On the suggestion of Mr. Dow the matter went over till 9 P. M. next Monday night, and in the meantime he and the City Engineer will look to the matter of the curb.

The protest against the sidewalking of Seventh street between East Fourteenth and East Sixteenth streets came up as a special order. J. Smith spoke in favor of the protest. Joseph Anderson spoke against it. The protest was denied.

PIERSOL'S ASSISTANT.

A resolution was read authorizing the City Attorney to appoint an assistant at a salary of $100 a month.

Mr. Bassett wanted to know if a resolution of that kind had not already been disposed of.

The clerk said that this was the resolution.

Mr. Bassett thought that the disposition made of the other resolution set the matter aside for six months.

A motion to suspend the rules for the adoption of the resolution was lost by a vote of nine to two.

Mr. Heitmann—I'd like to see the attorney that is worth anything that would work for $100 a month.

GENERAL WORK.

A resolution authorizing the appointment of T. L. Bromley as a temporary clerk in the auditor's office at a salary of $100 a month was referred to the Finance Committee.

I. W. Evans of the Board of Education was granted a leave of absence for 15 days.

Superintendent McClymonds was granted leave of absence for five weeks.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the purchase of two fire engine horses at a price not to exceed $150 each.

The protest of F. F. Werner against the sewering of Fifth avenue near Twenty-first street will come up as a special order at 9.15 P. M. September 2nd.

The request of the Street Superintendent for a steam roller and sprinkler for repairing San Pablo avenue was referred to the auditing and Finance Committee.

A resolution was introduced authorizing the chief engineer of the fire department to purchase a gauge for the purpose of testing fire hydrants.

In support of the measure Mr. Heitmann said the chief engineer is running around with an old clock trying to read the pressure. They might as well give him a shingle to measure the hay with. The resolution was passed.

ORDINANCES.

The ordinance establishing the official grade of East Twentieth street from Twentieth to Twenty-first street was passed to print.

THE PEDDLERS' LICENSES.

The ordinance establishing peddlers' licenses at various rates from $5 to $50 was brought up.

Mr. Bassett wanted it continued at the request of the President of the Merchants' Exchange.

Mr. Heitmann wanted it disposed of because the Merchants' Exchange had already been heard on the subject.

Col. T. F. Garrity, who appeared for the peddlers, said that if it went over he would like to have it go over until there should be a full attendance of members.

Mr. Bassett wanted to send the ordinance to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Heitmann moved the ordinance be indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Bassett again referred to the fact that the Merchants' Exchange had requested that the ordinance be put over till the Exchange could be heard.

This brought Mr. Heitmann to his feet in opposition to further delay. "If necessary," he said, "we can hear the other side now. The Merchants' Exchange has been before us and we have heard all they have had to say. We ought to act on this tonight, because these men who have to get up at 3 or 4 o'clock in the morning to attend to their business would like to know what we are going to do about it."

Mr. Bassett spoke once more in favor of postponement, and while he was talking Mr. Marshall cried "Question, question." This incensed Mr. Bassett, who turned to Marshall and said, "Why do you cry 'question' when I am speaking. It is ungentlemanly."

Mr. Heitmann renewed his motion to indefinitely postpone the ordinance. The motion was seconded by Mr. Brosnahan and was carried unanimously, even Mr. Manuel voting in the affirmative.

An ordinance was passed authorizing the Board of Public Works to replace a wooden sewer on Fallon street with an iron pipe at a cost not to exceed $780.

An ordinance was passed authorizing the Board of Public Works to advertise for bids for the erection of an engine house not to exceed $3,500 on Laurel street between Broadway and Twenty-fifth street.

An ordinance was also passed regulating the digging of portions of sidewalks of public streets.

The Council then adjourned till next Monday night.

A NUMBER OF ORDINANCES.

Sidewalk Protests and the Water Question Bobs Up.

At last night's meeting of the Council all the members were present and the waste of water at Alvarado by the Contra Costa Water Company came in for another scoring at the hands of several representative citizens.

The matter came up when the following resolution was introduced by Mr. Bassett:

'Resolved, That the Oakland Water Company be and is hereby authorized to connect its mains with all hydrants of the city of Oakland east of the east line of Oakland avenue and the western shore of the estuary and Lake Merritt, for the purpose of supplying water for fires, street sprinkling and sewer flushing, also to supply public squares and buildings belonging to the City of Oakland, except school buildings.

"Resolved, That the Contra Costa Water Company be and is hereby directed to disconnect their mains with each of said hydrants, public buildings and public squares upon notification by the chairman of the Committee on Fire and Water of the City Council.

The chair said that the proper way would be to refer the resolution to a committee under the rules.

Mr. Bassett said they were not springing the rules upon everything and several resolutions had been rushed through without any difficulty. Besides he had, he said, several gentlemen whom he would like the Council to hear on the subject if they had not gone away.

The chair asked if there was any objection.

Mr. Towle moved that the gentlemen be heard, and there was no objection to the extension of the courtesy.

Mr. Bassett then called W. A. Jacobs, but the latter did not respond. He next called P. E. Dalton, and that gentleman came forward and was sworn.

He was asked whether he had lately been at Alvarado and what he had seen with respect to the water supply at that place, together with a variety of questions by Mr. Bassett, to all of which he answered as follows:

"I was at Alvarado recently. I saw a great supply of water near the Oakland Water Company's works."

Mr. Bassett—Did you see any other water?

Dalton—I saw other machinery working, pumping out of four or five wells. I heard it said that the pumping was done by the old water company, the Contra Costa Water Company. There was quite a body of water coming from the pumps, estimated at 2,000,000 or 3,000,000 gallons a day. It was pumped into the bay. I saw where it was pumped. I understood it was being pumped by the Contra Costa Company. I could not tell the object of the pumping. I heard that the object was to lessen the supply of the wells of the Oakland Water Company; that is what the people said.

Mr. Capell—From what you saw did you think anybody was pumping to weaken the supply of the Oakland Water Company? The old company has a reservoir at San Leandro, haven't they? They have no necessity of pumping water at Alvarado?

Mr. Dalton replied that the Contra Costa Company does own the reservoir referred to and that there seemed to be no reason for the Alvarado pumping.

Mr. Capell—That water does not come this way?

Mr. Dalton replied that it does not.

Mr. Manuel—Did the pumping make the Dingee supply of water weak?

Mr. Dalton—They said it did not.

Mr. Bassett—It is not what the pumping does but what they try to do.

Mr. Brosnahan—I can't see what this has to do with the resolution introduced. We have heard it all before. I have read it before in the speach of that great anti-monopoly, anti-railroad man, G. W. Baker at the tabernacle the other night that was published in the papers.

Mr. Heitmann said there were some citizens present who ought to be heard on the subject.

Mr. Bassett suggested that perhaps everybody had not read the speech referred to.

Mr. Brosnahan said he guessed everybody of intelligence had because the Tribune and Enquirer that published it found their way into nearly every place in Oakland.

Mr. Manuel—Any objections?

Mr. Brosnahan—Oh, I have no objections, only I don't see what this has got to do with the resolution.

Mr. Capell said he thought the matter ought to go before the committee. He did not want to stay there till midnight.

Mr. Brosnahan—I am willing to hear everything, although the insurance companies came here a short time ago with a request and they were choked off.

Mr. Towle said he was always willing, even if it did keep them a little late, to give citizens a chance to be heard.

HENRY EVERS SPEAKS.

Henry Evers then appeared, and in response to questions from Mr. Bassett said: "Sunday week twenty-five or thirty citizens, and I was one of them, were invited to go to the Dingee Water Works. We saw the pumps working. Afterwards we were invited to go to a place near by, where we heard engines working. We saw a great volume of water pumped into a flume and then into the marsh. The flume was 24 inches wide. There were fifteen inches of water running in it. I didn't estimate the quantity of water. Some said there were three million gallons a day running through. The water went from a flume into a ditch on the marsh. I saw no irrigation there. It is very wet around there. The three pipes I saw were of very good size. They were leading to the house where the pumping was done. There was an engineer who came out of the house as we started to go in. He closed the door behind him and said: 'No one allowed in here.' I think some of the gentlemen who were close to him tried to enter the house. We talked some as to who was pumping the water. I don't know whether it was the Contra Costa Water Company that was doing it or not."

J. F. W. Sohst was next called, and in response to questions by Mr. Bassett said:

"I was at the water works at Alvarado last Sunday week. I saw the pumps outside of the Oakland Water Company's plant. I saw the water running into the swamps. The measure taken enabled them to calculate that three million gallons a day were being pumped from the wells. I saw pipes from four different wells running into the building. I tried every pipe and you could hear the water running through it. The water came out of the glue factory and was run down into the swamp. The wells were a block and a half from the Dingee water works and the wells were close to the Dingee water works, next to the creek. They had a threshing machine engine attached to a pipe, but Mr. Boardman said they had stopped it at 11 A. M. and we got there at 3 P. M. The common expression was that the Contra Costa Water Company was wasting the water. We all concluded that the reason why they are doing this was to draw the water away from the Dingee Water Company and that it was being done by the Contra Costa Water Company.

Mr. Towle—As a citizen and property owner, from your observation, do you think that the Dingee Water Company has water to protect the City of Oakland?

Mr. Sohst—I think it has. There was a big stream rushing into the reservoir, and when it enters the reservoir it is like a small creek. It runs at quite a depth. It runs across a beam. When it ran against the beam I could see and hear it had a great force. When we went into the building there was 35 pounds pressure on the engine. The engineer raised the pressure in a minute to 57 or 58 pounds.

Mr. Bassett—Were they running all the pumps?

Mr. Sohst—They were running one pump. Mr. Dingee has two pumps. He had only one of the boilers fired up.

Mr. Brosnahan—You don't know of your own personal knowledge who owns or who was working the pumps.

Mr. Sohst—I don't know, but I saw an account by a man named Smith who said that he was doing the pumping, and I know he isn't. I take the Oakland Water Company's water. We asked the Contra Costa Water Company to do fair by us, to give us good water. I had to protect my children from drinking the Contra Costa water. I told them to drink milk. Now that we get the Oakland Water Company's water I told my children that they could drink all the water they wanted. It is our privilege to get the best water we can. Alameda was built up on artesian well water. People would not stop over here. They said, 'Your water is not good and we will go where we can get good water.'

Mr. Brosnahan—Still you can't say that it was the Contra Costa Water Company that was doing this pumping?

Mr. Sohst—The people say it was the Contra Costa Company.

Mr. Dow—Ought we to give all the water hydrants to the Oakland Water Company?

Mr. Sohst—I used to occupy that seat (indicating that of Mr. Marshall) I took the responsibility of my acts. I always took the side I thought best. I am not going to tell you what to do.

Mack Webber was the next to appear before the Council

"I indorse," he said, "what has been said by those who preceded me. I am ready to answer any questions you may ask."

Mr. Brosnahan asked whether he had heard what Mr. Sohst had said and Mr. Webber replied that he had.

Mr. Dow—Do you think we ought to give all the hydrants to the Oakland Water Company?

Mr. Webber—If left to me I would not do it. I would make an equitable division. I believe both companies should be sustained.

Mr. Bassett—If you divided the hydrants between the companies and found out that one of the companies went and tried to pump the water away from the other, don't you think that something ought to be done?

Mr. Webber—I should not like to suggest a remedy. I should like to do something. I think it wicked to wantonly waste the good water of Alvarado. Any more questions?

Mr. Brosnahan—I wanted to know if they knew who owns the pumps which were doing this pumping at Alvarado. Perhaps you know?

Mr. Webber said he did not know.

Mr. Bassett moved that the rules be suspended and the resolution passed, but this was defeated by the following vote:

Ayes—Bassett, Dow, Heitmann, Watkinson—4.

Nays—Brosnahan, Buckland, Capell, Marshall, Mott, Towle, Manuel—7.

The resolution then went to the Water Committee under the rules.

NOW REGULAR WORK.

The question of making the maximum salary of foremen engaged in the grading of streets under the Superintendent of Streets, $4 per day, created quite a discussion.

Mr. Towle wanted to know how many foremen would be required. Possibly there should be one foreman for every gang, but there might be four gangs, there might be a dozen gangs, there might be fifty gangs.

Mr. Brosnahan said that the suggestion had been made by the Superintendent of Streets.

Superintendent of Streets Miller said that at present four foremen are employed at a salary of $2.50 each per day. Sometimes it is necessary to retain experts and they are entitled to the wages paid by contractors.

Mr. Towle said that they are working now for $2.50 each. It seemed to him that when a maximum rate was established it would be difficult to get them to work for a lesser amount. When special foremen are required he thought they ought to be appointed by the Council.

Superintendent of Streets Miller said that would require a special appointment for every special job.

Mr. Heitmann said that in some jobs special skilled foremen are required. They are not required in the redressing of San Pablo avenue. Less skillful men could be got for the low price, but to get good men good wages had to be paid.

Mr. Towle said that two-thirds of San Pablo avenue had been dressed before.

Mr. Capell said he had a man in East Oakland who had been foreman but who had never received more than $2.50 a day and he was perfectly willing to work for those rates. His name was James Mulgrew. "He's got a wife and ten children," said Mr. Capell, "and that is not what every person has."

Mr. Heitmann said Mulgrew was not a constructor, but has simply been looking after men cleaning streets. That he considered no hard work.

Mr. Bassett said the Superintendent of Streets says he has four foremen now over the streets. Last year the assistant superintendent of streets overlooked the men himself. No bosses were then employed, and they ought not to be employed when the assistant superintendent of streets ought to do the work himself. Holmes used to have the men fixed on blocks so that he could watch them. These times are inflicted with too much bossism. Several years ago there was a sewer put in on Harrison street. Inquiry was made as to the cost of superintendence. The engineer got a salary or fees, the superintendent and assistant were getting salary, and it was costing the city $28 a day and there were only two men at work. We would be better off if there were more work and less bossism.

Mr. Capell reiterated that Holmes made a good assistant superintendent.

Mr. Towle made a motion to refer back to the Auditing and Finance Committee. The motion was lost by the following vote:

Ayes—Buckland, Capell, Marshall, Towle, Manuel—5.

Nays—Bassett, Brosnahan, Dow, Heitmann, Mott, Watkinson—6.

Mr. Bassett said that he wanted it understood that the salary was to be the maximum, but the superintendent is not required to pay it in every instance.

Mr. Mott said $4 was the limit. The Superintendent of Streets must be trusted as to his judgment.

Mr. Towle said he thought it opened up the avenues for the purpose of increasing the expense in salaries.

The resolution was then adopted, the only votes against it being Messrs. Capell and Towle.

PETITIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS

Communications were read as follows:

From the Mayor, suggesting the segregation of refuse and garbage thus enabling ashes to be used wherever needed inside the city limits, while garbage proper could be taken out of the city. Filed.

From the Mayor, referring to the fact that the minutes of the police court, for various lengths of time in the years from 1889 up to a short time ago in 1895, have not been written up and suggesting the appointment of a clerk at a salary not to exceed $100 a month to do the necessary writing, the work to consume not more than three months. Finance committee.

From the Mayor, setting forth the necessity of employing landscape gardeners for the purpose of beautifying the public parks. The mayor set forth that he has now on file offers of donations of plants for the parks. He recommended the employment of two landscape gardeners at a salary not to exceed $100 a month each for the erection of fountains and benches in each park.

Ordering the payment of the claim of D. G. Brownell.

That the Board of Public Works direct the Street Superintendent to allow $2.50 instead of $4 for inspectors of sewer work when the work is done by a public contractor. Mr. Dow thought that the Council has no right to compensation in such matters. The resolution was adopted.

Sewering East Fifteenth street from Twenty-second avenue to the sewer in the alley between Twenty-second and Twenty-third avenue. Adopted.

Rescinding a resolution of intention for the sidewalking of Eighth street from Magnolia so as to provide for the south side of Eighth street between Filbert and Linden. Adopted.

Authorizing a number of lights in various parts of the city. In response to a question Mr. Heitmann said that a conference of Councilmen who needed lights had been called for; that it was decided that fifty lights ought to be secured, and that of that number 25 were contemplated under the resolution, leaving 25 more lights for Councilmen who had need of them in other districts. Adopted.

RESOLUTIONS OF INTENTION.

Resolutions of intention were disposed of as follows:

Sidewalking with cement Eighth street from Filbert to Linden. Adopted.

LIQUOR LICENSES.

Liquor licenses were granted as follows: Eichwede, Muhr & Co., 853 Adeline street; Henry Werking, 879 Washington street; Connolly & Dooley, 1747 Seventh street; Henry Martin, 382 East Twelfth street; Peter Becker and Jos. Schmidt, 479 Seventh street; D. T. McCarthy, 1322 Fourteenth street; R. C. Schacht, 602 Franklin; Jacob Powell, 674 Broadway; J. H. Murray, 1760 Sixteenth street; John Slavich, 910 Broadway; A. Jorgenson, 920 Franklin; D. Knobe and Geo. Belesboek, 473 Eleventh street.

LIQUOR LICENSE BONDS.

Liquor license bonds were approved as follows: A. Wettstein, 416 Fourth street; C. Schafer and W. Knox, 223 San Pablo avenue; M. Cicely and N. Mililoglav, 836 Broadway; Fred Peterson, 477 Eighth street; H. Ruedy and J. Thommen, 844 Franklin street; J. H. Cahill, 860 Twelfth street; C. D. O'Gard and W. K. Soe, Seventh and Franklin streets; H. Cuppels, 573 Broadway; M. Hanley, 1507 Seventh street; C. Mahoney, 823 Broadway.

SIDEWALK PROTESTS.

The protest of J. Crist and others against a sidewalk near the planing mills in East Oakland came up as a special order at 9 o'clock.

Mr. Tum Suden, one of the protestants, said he could not build the sidewalk in question because he did not know where the curb line is. If he should lay the walk now he would probably receive ten feet more ground than he is entitled to.

On the suggestion of Mr. Dow the matter went over till 9 P. M. next Monday night, and in the meantime he and the City Engineer will look to the matter of the curb.

The protest against the sidewalking of Seventh street between East Fourteenth and East Sixteenth streets came up as a special order. J. Smith spoke in favor of the protest. Joseph Anderson spoke against it. The protest was denied.

PIERSOL'S ASSISTANT.

A resolution was read authorizing the City Attorney to appoint an assistant at a salary of $100 a month.

Mr. Bassett wanted to know if a resolution of that kind had not already been disposed of.

The clerk said that this was the resolution.

Mr. Bassett thought that the disposition made of the other resolution set the matter aside for six months.

A motion to suspend the rules for the adoption of the resolution was lost by a vote of nine to two.

Mr. Heitmann—I'd like to see the attorney that is worth anything that would work for $100 a month.

GENERAL WORK.

A resolution authorizing the appointment of T. L. Bromley as a temporary clerk in the auditor's office at a salary of $100 a month was referred to the Finance Committee.

J. W. Evans of the Board of Education was granted a leave of absence for 15 days.

Superintendent McClymonds was granted leave of absence for five weeks.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the purchase of two fire engine horses at a price not to exceed $150 each.

The protest of F. F. Werner against the sewering of Fifth avenue near Twenty-first street will come up as a special order at 9:15 P. M. September 2nd.

The request of the Street Superintendent for a steam roller and sprinkler for repairing San Pablo avenue was referred to the auditing and Finance Committee.

A resolution was introduced authorizing the chief engineer of the fire department to purchase a gauge for the purpose of testing fire hydrants.

In support of the measure Mr. Heitmann said the chief engineer is running around with an old clock trying to read the pressure. They might as well give him a shingle to measure the bay with. The resolution was passed.

ORDINANCES.

The ordinance establishing the official grade of East Twentieth street from Twentieth to Twenty-first strete was passed to print.

THE PEDDLERS' LICENSES.

The ordinance establishing peddlers' licenses at various rates from $5 to $50 was brought up.

Mr. Bassett wanted it continued at the request of the President of the Merchants' Exchange.

Mr. Heitmann wanted it disposed of because the Merchants' Exchange had already been heard on the subject.

Col. T. F. Garrity, who appeared for the peddlers, said that if it went over he would like to have it go over until there should be a full attendance of members.

Mr. Bassett wanted to send the ordinance to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Heitmann moved the ordinance be indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Bassett again referred to the fact that the Merchants' Exchange had requested that the ordinance be put over till the Exchange could be heard.

This brought Mr. Heitmann to his feet in opposition to further delay. "If necessary," he said, "we can hear the other side now. The Merchants' Exchange has been before us and we have heard all they have had to say. We ought to act on this tonight, because these men who have to get up at 3 or 4 o'clock in the morning to attend to their business would like to know what we are going to do about it."

Mr. Bassett spoke once more in favor of postponement, and while he was talking Mr. Marshall cried "Question, question." This incensed Mr. Bassett, who turned to Marshall and said, "Why do you cry 'question' when I am speaking. It is ungentlemanly."

Mr. Heitmann renewed his motion to indefinitely postpone the ordinance. The motion was seconded by Mr. Brosnahan and was carried unanimously, even Mr. Manuel voting in the affirmative.

An ordinance was passed authorizing the Board of Public Works to replace a wooden sewer on Fallon street with an iron pipe at a cost not to exceed $760.

An ordinance was passed authorizing the Board of Public Works to advertise for bids for the erection of an engine house not to exceed $3,500 on Laurel street between Broadway and Twenty-fifth street.

An ordinance was also passed regulating the digging of portions of sidewalks of public streets.

The Council then adjourned till next Monday night.

In the Matter of the Application of E. P. Vandercook for a Street Railroad Franchise.

To the Honorable, the Board of Supervisors of the County of Alameda.

Gentlemen: I hereby offer and tender to the County of Alameda the sum of twenty-five ($25) dollars, for the franchise and privileges asked for in the above entitled matter on the 21th day of June, 1895, and I also agree to pay all the expenses of advertising in connection with said matter, and I also agree to erect and maintain clusters of five incandescent lamps each, or their equivalent, at twenty different places along the route described in the above mentioned matter, at such locations as the Board of Supervisors may order and direct, and I also agree to furnish the County of Alameda with power sufficient to run a ten-horse power motor at the County Infirmary in Alameda County, when and during the time the railroad is in operation, and I further agree to pay to the County of Alameda one quarter of one per cent of the gross receipts of said railroad after the first five years of operation.

Very respectfully,

E. P. VANDERCOOK.

The following was also received from A. D. Thompson:

To the Hon. Board of Supervisors of Alameda County.

If awarded said franchise and privilege I agree to pay to the County of Alameda at the expiration of five years after said railroad is completed, and thereafter annually, two per centum of the gross receipts of said road, according to a verified statement of the same.

A. D. THOMPSON.

Dated July 29th, 1895.

The bids were then taken under advisement.

Resolved, That Supervisor J. R. Talcott is hereby directed to repair the first two bridges and to replace the last named with a substantial new bridge as soon as possible."

The resolution was adopted by the following called vote: Ayes, Supervisors Church, Talcott, Johnston, Pelouze, Chairman Bailey—5. Noes, none.

The resolution was adopted by the following called vote: Ayes, Supervisors Church, Talcott, Johnston, Pelouze, Chairman Bailey—5. Noes, none.

THE BIDS OF E. P. VANDERCOOK AND A. D. THOMPSON

Thereupon the following resolution was introduced:

"Resolved, by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Alameda, State of California, that the bid and tender of E. P. Vandercook, whereby and wherein the said last mentioned party offers to pay to the County of Alameda the sum of twenty-five ($25) dollars for the franchise and privileges asked for in the application of said Vandercook for a street railroad franchise, filed with this Board on the 21th day of June, 1895, and also to pay all the expenses of advertising in connection with said matter, and also to erect and maintain lights at certain locations to be designated by this Board, and also to furnish the County of Alameda with power sufficient to run a ten-horse power motor at the County Infirmary in Alameda County, when and during the time the railroad is in operation, and also to pay the County of Alameda one quarter of one per cent of the gross receipts of said railroad, after the first five years of operation, which said bid and tender was filed with this Board in open session on July 29th, 1895, at 2 o'clock P. Vandercook, his successors in interest and assigns, he being the highest bidder therefore.

The roll was called and the resolution adopted by the following vote: Ayes, Supervisors Church, Talcott, Johnston, Pelouze—4. Noes, none. Absent from roll call Chairman Bailey.

Gossip and Gleanings From the Thriving Near-by Cities.

A General Indication of Prosperity Throughout This Section.

The Livermore Herald of last week contains an account of a visit by Editor Dungan and John Aylward to the ranch of John Brown, which is situated about four miles north of Livermore. The editor writes of the visit as follows: "We were first shown the gass well, situated on a side hill about a mile and a half from his residence. It is piped with an eleven-inch pipe to a depth of 208 feet. A derrick stands over the well with a pump attached, which was lowered into the well and the water was pumped out to a depth of twenty feet. The top of the well was then plugged tightly for a few minutes, after which a piece of one-inch pipe was inserted, the gas lighted and it continued to burn for several hours, in fact until it was extinguished, notwithstanding the fact that the well had filled up with water in the meanwhile. The water in the bottom was greatly agitated after the pumping had ceased, which was caused by the gas forcing its way through it. The gas is odorless.

"We were next taken down about 100 yards into a ravine to the oil well. Mr. Brown has two holes bored close together, one eleven and the other fourteen feet deep, and notwithstanding the fact that they were both plugged up by a blast that was put in wrong the oil was bubbling up and quite a large pool had formed. It was dark and rather heavy and almost odorless. Mr. Aylward, who has used it on machinery, says it has a good body and makes a fine lubricant. Mr. Brown has an apparatus for saving the oil and has at different times taken out several gallons. He brought me a quart can, which we have on exhibition in our office.

"On the opposite side of the hill, distant about a quarter of a mile, is a large salt water spring."

Between twenty and thirty acres of hops fell to the ground the first of last week owing to the heavy crop, says the Pleasanton Times. As the ground was quite soft and the crop an extra heavy one, the weight became too great. The vines that fell were in the new yard. However, these hops will not be lost, as they are being cared for.

The people of Pleasanton are preparing to celebrat Admission Day, September 9th, in grand style. Besides bicycle racing in the afternoon there will be a barbecue in the forenoon and a ball in the evening. The Pleasanton Cycle Club intends to do itself proud on that occasion.

W. W. Camron is about to erect a fine dwelling house on his lot recently purchased on the Dublin Valley road north of Pleasanton and next to the property owned by Pete Oxsen.

The Pleasanton Times says: "Our school children will all be given an opportunity to register for hop-picking again this year. In all probability the school will close on or about the first of September."

E. P. Vandercook, one of the promoters of the proposed electric road from Oakland to Livermore, was in Haywards Tuesday, securing concessions from property owners for the right of way for this road. Mr. Vandercook, says the Pleasanton Times, received much encouragement from the people interested and expresses himself as greatly pleased with the treatment accorded him.

Congressman Hilborn was among those from Oakland who attended the Masonic banquet in Livermore last Saturday evening. He was the guest of Rube Hunter while in that lively town.

COTTOLENE.

How to use Cottolene

the new shortening, like all other things must be rightly used if you wish the best results. Never, in any recipe, use more than two-thirds as much Cottolene as you used to use of lard. Never put Cottolene in a hot pan. Put it in when cold and heat it with the pan. Be careful not to burn Cottolene. To test it, add a drop of water; if hot enough, it will pop. Cottolene, when rightly used, delights everyone. Get the genuine, sold everywhere in tins, with trade-marks—"Cottolene" and steer's head in cotton-plant wreath—on every tin.

Gossip and Gleanings From the Thriving Near-by Cities.

A General Indication of Prosperity Throughout This Section.

The Livermore Herald of last week contains an account of a visit by Editor Dungan and John Aylward to the ranch of John Brown, which is situated about four miles north of Livermore. The editor writes of the visit as follows: "We were first shown the gass well, situated on a side hill about a mile and a half from his residence. It is piped with an eleven-inch pipe to a depth of 208 feet. A derrick stands over the well with a pump attached, which was lowered into the well and the water was pumped out to a depth of twenty feet. The top of the well was then plugged tightly for a few minutes, after which a piece of one-inch pipe was inserted, the gas lighted and it continued to burn for several hours, in fact until it was extinguished, notwithstanding the fact that the well had filled up with water in the meanwhile. The water in the bottom was greatly agitated after the pumping had ceased, which was caused by the gas forcing its way through it. The gas is odorless.

"We were next taken down about 100 yards into a ravine to the oil well. Mr. Brown has two holes bored close together, one eleven and the other fourteen feet deep and notwithstanding the fact that they were both plugged up by a blast that was put in wrong the oil was bubbling up and quite a large pool had formed. It was dark and rather heavy and almost odorless. Mr. Aylward who has used it on machinery, says it has a good body and makes a fine lubricant. Mr. Brown has an apparatus for saving the oil and has at different times taken out several gallons. He brought me a quart can, which we have on exhibition in our office.

"On the opposite side of the hill, distant about a quarter of a mile, is a large salt water spring."

Between twenty and thirty acres of hops fell to the ground the first of last week owing to the heavy crop, says the Pleasanton Times. As the ground was quite soft and the crop an extra heavy one, the weight became too great. The vines that fell were in the new yard. However, these hops will not be lost, as they are being cared for.

The people of Pleasanton are preparing to celebrate Admission Day, September 9th, in grand style. Besides bicycle racing in the afternoon there will be a barbecue in the forenoon and a ball in the evening. The Pleasanton Cycle Club intends to do itself proud on that occasion.

W. W. Camron is about to erect a fine dwelling house on his lot recently purchased on the Dublin Valley road north of Pleasanton and next to the property owned by Pete Oxsen.

The Pleasanton Times says: "Our school children will all be given an opportunity to register for hop-picking again this year. In all probability the school will close on or about the first of September."

E. P. Vandercook, one of the promoters of the proposed electric road from Oakland to Livermore, was in Haywards Tuesday, securing concessions from property owners for the right of way for this road. Mr. Vandercook, says the Pleasanton Times, received much encouragement from the people interested and expresses himself as greatly pleased with the treatment accorded him.

Congressman Hilborn was among the men from Oakland who attended the Masonic banquet in Livermore last Saturday evening. He was the guest of Rube Hunter while in that lively town.

COTTOLENE.

How to use Cottolene

the new shortening, like all other things must be rightly used if you wish the best results. Never, in any recipe, use more than two-thirds as much Cottolene as you used to use of lard. Never put Cottolene in a hot pan. Put it in when cold and heat it with the pan. Be careful not to burn Cottolene. To test it, add a drop of water, if hot enough, it will pop. Cottolene, when rightly used, delights everyone. Get the genuine, sold everywhere in tins, with trade-marks—"Cottolene" and steer's head in cotton-plant wreath—on every tin.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR ALL.

Excellent Shows Staged at All the Leading Theaters.

Good Attractions Have Been Booked for Oakland This Season.

William Gillette, in the most successful of his comedies, "Too Much Johnson," will be the attraction at the Macdonough for three nights commencing next Monday evening. The sale of seats will commence on Thursday and Manager Cook predicts a tremendous business. Gillette has become one of the leading writers of bright, sparkling comedy and his ability to portray his own creations is exceptional.

Following Gillette will be John Drew in "The Bauble Shop."

"THE CRIME OF A CENTURY."

That much-talked-of play, "The Crime of a Century," about which so many claim extensive knowledge when, in fact, its real purport, text and situations are, so far as the public is concerned, an unknown quantity, as it has never received a full production, will be given tomorrow evening at Dietz's Opera House. The original San Francisco cast that spent a night in jail for disobeying Judge Murphy's order, will be seen in the various characters. Manager Darby is at a loss to understand why so many wish to prejudice a play that he claims does not contain an immoral line or allusion and whose general tenor is the average drama of today. It is to be played throughout the interior for two weeks and will then be presented to San Francisco for its critical inspection. Seats are now on sale at P. H. and E. C. Reilly's drug store and the indications are that the houses will be crowded at each performance.

THE OAKLAND THEATER.

Thomas Leary and James Post, the clever character comedians, will give a week of "Fun on the Bristol" at the Oakland theater commencing next Monday. They will bring a very competent troupe of specialty people with them.

THE BALDWIN.

John Drew with his selected company appeared last night before an ultra fashionable audience at the Baldwin in "The Bauble Shop," a new play by H. A. Jones, who has made a great hit as a writer of modern society dramas. The engagement is an event in theatrical circles. It is one which will call out the very best people and will commend itself as well worth an evening's visit. The Baldwin will not suffer any of its prestige from John Drew and the excellent company of players he has with him. The play is clever and its production last night was pronounced a success without reserve.

THE COLUMBIA.

A triple bill was given at the Columbia last evening and the entertainment was delightful. The curtain raiser was "A Man of the World," in which Maurice Barrymore portrayed the character to perfection. "Nance Old Field" followed and Miss Coghlan did not disappoint her admirers in the interpretation of Charles Reade's heroine. Her performance was delightful. Henry Dixey had full swing to his fun in 'A Tragedy Rehearsed." It is a jolly thing and left the audience to depart in good humor.

THE ORPHEUM.

Manager Walters has a programme of specialties to offer this week that will crowd the always popular Orpheum to the doors. The last week's success of the Jordan family is repeated while other performers who have won their way into popularity are retained.

MOROSCO'S.

A startling drama of Western life is "A Cracker Jack," with a full complement of wild situations in which a real "hold up" is one of the features. The play meets the tastes of the Morosco patrons and will do a big business this week.

THE TIVOLI.

"The Royal Middy" commenced its second week last night to a big house at the Tivoli. The tuneful opera is popular and its staging is a feature of the production.

THE MECHANICS' FAIR.

Thousands are daily finding their way into the big Mechanics' Pavilion to enjoy the wealth of attractions that are offered during the twenty-eighth Industrial Exposition of the Mechanics' Institute. There are unequalled displays this year and the fair partakes more of a national exhibition than ever before. It received a stimulous from the recent Midwinter Exposition that has caused a great improvement. Scheel's grand orchestra is undeniably the finest collection of musicians the exposition has ever gathered together.

Off to Boston.

There was a brilliant scene at the broad gauge mole last night, hundreds of ladies and gentlemen gathering there to bid bon voyage to the members of Oakland Commandery, K. T., on their way to the triennial conclave at Boston. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed and the heartiest wishes for a pleasant journey and a safe return were expressed for everybody on board the Pullman cars as they pulled out of the mole for the other side of the country.

THE FIGHT FOR SILVER.

Encouraging Opening of the Convention in San Francisco.

C. W. Baker Explains the Ends Which It Is Desired to Attain.

The Convention of the California branch of the American Bimetallic League assembled at noon yesterday in the Metropolitan Hall San Francisco.

The several committees were appointed and an adjournment was taken until 9 o'clock this morning.

The convention was called to order by George W. Baker of this city, chairman of the executive committee of the California branch of the Bimetallic League. In his opening address he said that the silver question is the most important one before the people of the United States and that the delegates present had come together to discuss the subject for the benefit of their country.

"Among you," said Mr. Miller, "I observe farmers, merchants and men of every business, excepting banking. I do not expect any bankers here. On one side of this question are the producers of every class and on the other the bankers and bondholders. We silver men will speak at the next election. We are Democrats, Republicans, Populists, or whatever else we may be called, but all of us have one object in view—the restoration of silver to its proper position. We train with no political party; we ask no man whether he is a Democrat, Republican or Populist. All we ask is that he be a friend of silver, the money of the people and of a financial policy which shall benefit the workers and producers of the country.

"We will fight to a finish and never lay down our arms until silver is enthroned. It was degraded by an infamous conspiracy, and the work of that conspiracy must be undone. The press of the East has not treated the silver question in a proper spirit. It is controlled by Pierrepont Morgan, Rothschild, and the gold syndicate, our deadliest enemies. We can and will protect our financial policy from any three-ball concern of that character."

This address was received with much applause. Miss Phoebe Couzins, who was on the platform, joined in the cheers.

The question of allowing delegates from other states to vote came up and inquiry was made of Chairman Baker on the subject and he replied as follows:

"This is a new deal in politics and we are not bound by any technicalities."

The motion to extend all rights and privileges from other states was carried unanimously.

J. P. Isdell of Alameda was given a position on the committee of permanent organization.

Frank Moffitt of this city was appointed a member of the committee on platform and resolutions.

Speeches were made by D. W. McNeill of San Francisco, D. E. Alexander of Sacramento and C. C. Powning, and a number of others.

At the meeting of the committee on platform, Judge Gibson said he favored going slowly, and that before the convention adjourned they might consider the question of forming a new party.

COUNTY WORK.

Improvements and General Business Before the Supervisors.

At yesterday afternoon's session of the Supervisors the application for aid for Mrs. Mary Johnson, widow, residing at 617 Sixth street, was referred to Supervisor Church; that of Walter Young, aged 75 years, for railroad fare to Chico was denied.

Supervisor Talcott was instructed to build a bridge over San Leandro creek, near Haywards at an expense not to exceed $480.

Claims for damages for road 2731 were allowed as follows: Mary Ives Crocker et al., $16.80; R. Heara, $58.80; J. T. Getschell, $43.50; F. Coledewigh, $21.60; Mrs. Louise Davis, $2.50; James Brown, 20 cents; A. Brecht, $35.00; D. Garwerto, $23.80; L. B. Coleman, $10.60. Total, $234.90.

The question of declaring Second avenue from Temescal avenue to Hudson street a county road was referred to the county surveyor.

The question of fees in the matter of the prosecution of F. D. Mitchell for chicken stealing occasioned a great deal of surprise because they were a great deal more than the value of the goods stolen. The matter will be investigated by the board.

The A. O. U. W. Meeting.

The "open meeting" for tomorrow evening under the auspices of Brooklyn Lodge, No. 3, A. O. U. W., will be held in Odd Fellows' hall, corner Twelfth street and Eleventh avenue, East Oakland, and not at Washington hall as erroneously stated in a postal card received by members of the order. An elaborate programme has been prepared for the occasion.

The "representative citizen" of Oakland has at last been stirred up over the contemptible methods of a rival of the Oakland Water Company. While competition is the life of trade, placed under the direction of such despicable beings it is a detriment to the community. Now that the water robbery has been denounced the common people may expect an innings.—Alameda Telegram.

FIX UP THE HIGHWAYS.

The Movement to Improve the Roads Should Be Indorsed by All.

The streets of Oakland and the roads of Alameda county are not the best in the State. There is no reason why they should not be the best. With an abundance of the most perfect of road material that is easily accessible to every part of the county and that can be placed on the roads at small expense, with abundance of water for sprinkling in summer and good drainage in winter, with easy grades for hauling produce and unsurpassed sites for scenic drives there is no good reason why this county should not be known throughout the world for its roads. That it is not so known is due to indifference of the citizens.

When the State Bureau of Highways visited this city and commented unfavorably on the condition of the roads the County Supervisors expressed the opinion that the roads of Alameda county were the best in the State. There are perhaps some others who hold the same opinion, but a little investigation would prove how erroneous the idea is. The purpose of the Good Roads Association is to remove this reproach. This is to be accomplished, not all at once, but a step at a time.

The first point at which the association aims is to improve the approaches to the city. Alameda, Berkeley and the eastern parts of the county are cut off from Oakland by almost impassible roads. The road across the marsh from Alameda is in a condition that renders it dangerous to drive over it. Twelfth street across the dam and for several blocks beyond, is in an equally bad condition. Telegraph, San Pablo and Shattuck avenues and Adeline street are all in bad condition. These should be put in good condition, and the association is actively pushing to that end.

The work that is being done on the streets from time to time is often carelessly done. The foundation is not properly rolled, or the rock is too large in size, or the top dressing is not sufficient in quantity. The contractors are not dishonest, but they are simply human beings, and they naturally become careless and need watching. It is the duty of the city officials to perform this work of watching and they are doing all they can. But there is more work than they can attend to thoroughly, and poor work is done upon the street and is accepted. The blame for this lies with the citizens who do not take the trouble to look after their own interests. One of the lines of work of the Association is to assist the city officials in this work of supervision, and to give the citizens an opportunity to assist themselves.

Another line of activity is to gather information regarding the best methods of road building and street repairing, and to spread this information in order that all may know whether they are getting the worth of their money when they pay for street work. Throughout the country this subject is being studied, and the best professional opinion is being gathered. Knowledge of the science of road building is becoming general, and the people are beginning to find out that it pays to know about these things. An improperly laid road will not last; the expense of repairs is far greater than the additional original cost of a good road, and the direct and indirect expense of driving over them amounts to a sum that would be surprising were it once figured out.

These are some of the general lines of activity that the association proposes for itself. Other opportunities for work will arise from time to time and the association will embrace them. Those who have heretofore been active are willing to continue in the work and to give their time freely. But something more is needed. Money is required at every step and this can be secured only by every person who favors good streets and a prosperous city, joining the association. Without this the work can not be accomplished. The prosperity of a city is not ensured by apathy on the part of the citizens.

RAISIN MEN ARE HAPPY.

Good Prices Prevail and the Prospects Are Assuring.

A New Arrangement That Is Proving Profitable to Producers.

J. W. Laymance returned from Fresno last evening where he has been overseeing the shipment of raisins and grapes from his ranch. He shipped two carloads of Malagas during his stay. Mr. Laymance says there are better times in store for the raisin growers of Fresno, due to the better methods in handling the product. For two years past the growers of Fresno county have consigned their product to the packers and were entirely in the hands of the latter after their crops reached the consignees.

Things have changed this year. Colonel Forsyth and A. B. Butler, two of the largest vineyardists in the county, have entered the field and are buying raisins in the sweat box at from 1½c to 2½c a pound cash.

"This will pay the growers handsomely if the price reaches 3 to 4 cents," said Mr. Laymance. "Of course the best thing would be for the growers to hold their crop back until later in the season and not contract at the present time at the present prices. By doing so I believe the demand would be greater. That is to say there would be more buyers in the field. There is one redeemable feature about buying buyers in the field for raisins in the sweat box. I can see in this movement that it gives the growers a chance to compel the packers to buy raisins here or else guarantee to the growers a certain sum for his raisins and protect prices in the Eastern market.

"Of course the price of 2c per pound for raisins in the sweat box is entirely too low and there is no money in this proposition for the growers but it could be made better if the growers will stand firm. To do this there is considerable work to be done and they must do it at once.

"In the first place, every grower who has been compelled to get advances from the commission packers or who has been compelled to contract his crop should go to them and compel them in writing to guarantee a return of at least 2 cents per pound for raisins delivered up to a certain time in October or whatever is offered for raisins at the present time in the sweat box. If the packers will not do this the grower should sell elsewhere and pay back his advances to the commission packers. If this course is taken it will not be ten days I believe before the raisins will rise from 2 to 3 cents if not to 4 cents per pound in the sweat box.

"I believe there is not more than half a crop of raisins this year and that between now and the 15th day of October we shall see a heavy demand for raisins and good prices obtained so at least think a great many of the growers with whom I talked at Fresno on this trip."

Christian Healing.

At the meeting of Presbyterian clergymen in San Francisco yesterday "Faith Healing" was discussed. Rev. Campbell Coyle of the First Presbyterian church of this city said "Christian science is the counterfeit of the art of Divine healing, which has been lost to the church and taken up by the devil. If the patient has faith he can be cured without the use of drugs."

ENTERTAINMENT FOR ALL.

Excellent Shows Staged at All the Leading Theaters.

Good Attractions Have Been Booked for Oakland This Season.

William Gillette, in the most successful of his comedies, "Too Much Johnson," will be the attraction at the Macdonough for three nights commencing next Monday evening. The sale of seats will commmence on Thursday and Manager Cook predicts a tremendous business. Gillette has become one of the leading writers of bright, sparkling comedy and his ability to portray his own creations is exceptional.

Following Gillette will be John Drew in "The Bauble Shop."

"THE CRIME OF A CENTURY."

That much-talked-of play, "The Crime of a Century," about which so many claim extensive knowledge when, in fact, its real purport, text and situations are, so far as the public is concerned, an unknown quantity, as it has never received a full production, will be given tomorrow evening at Dietz's Opera House. The original San Francisco cast that spent a night in jail for disobeying Judge Murphy's order, will be seen in the various characters. Manager Dailey is at a loss to understand why so many wish to prejudice a play that he claims does not contain an immoral line or allusion and whose general tenor is the average drama of today. It is to be played throughout the interior for two weeks and will then be presented to San Francisco for its critical inspection. Seats are now on sale at P. H. and E. C. Reilly's drug store, and the indications are that the houses will be crowded at each performance.

THE OAKLAND THEATER.

Thomas Leary and James Post, the clever character comedians, will give a week of "Fun on the Bristol" at the Oakland theater commencing next Monday. They will bring a very competent troupe of specialty people with them.

THE BALDWIN.

John Drew with his selected company appeared last night before an ultra fashionable audience at the Baldwin in "The Bauble Shop," a new play by H. A. Jones, who has made a great hit as a writer of modern society dramas. The engagement is an event in theatrical circles. It is one which will call out the very best people and will commend itself as well worth an evening's visit. The Baldwin will not suffer any of its prestige from John Drew and the excellent company of players he has with him. The play is clever and its production last night was pronounced a success without reserve.

THE COLUMBIA

A triple bill was given at the Columbia last evening and the entertainment was delightful. The curtain raiser was "A Man of the World," in which Maurice Barrymore portrayed the character to perfection. "Nance Old Field" followed and Miss Coghlan did not disappoint her admirers in the interpretation of Charles Reade's heroine. Her performance was delightful. Henry Dixey had full swing to his fun in "A Tragedy Rehearsed." It is a jolly thing and left the audience to depart in good humor.

THE ORPHEUM.

Manager Walters has a programme of specialties to offer this week that will crowd the always popular Orpheum to the doors. The last week's success of the Jordan family is repeated while other performers who have won their way into popularity are retained.

MOROSCO'S.

A startling drama of Western life is "A Cracker Jack," with a full complement of wild situations in which a real "hold up" is one of the features. The play meets the tastes of the Morosco patrons and will do a big business this week.

THE TIVOLI.

"The Royal Middy" commenced its second week last night to a big house at the Tivoli. The tuneful opera is popular and its staging is a feature of the production.

THE MECHANICS' FAIR.

Thousands are daily finding their way into the big Mechanics' Pavilion to enjoy the wealth of attractions that are offered during the twenty-eighth Industrial Exposition of the Mechanics' Institute. There are unequalled displays this year and the fair partakes more of a national exhibition than ever before. It received a stimulous from the recent Midwinter Exposition that has caused a great improvement. Scheel's grand orchestra is undeniably the finest collection of musicians the exposition has ever gathered together.

Off to Boston.

There was a brilliant scene at the broad gauge mole last night, hundreds of ladies and gentlemen gathering there to bid bon voyage to the members of Oakland Commandery, K. T., on their way to the triennial conclave at Boston. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed and the heartiest wishes for a pleasant journey and a safe return were expressed for everybody on board the Pullman cars as they pulled out of the mole for the other side of the country.

THE FIGHT FOR SILVER.

Encouraging Opening of the Convention in San Francisco.

G. W. Baker Explains the Ends Which It Is Desired to Attain.

The Convention of the California branch of the American Bimetallic League assembled at noon yesterday in the Metropolitan Hall, San Francisco.

The several committees were appointed and an adjournment was taken until 9 o'clock this morning.

The convention was called to order by George W. Baker of this city, chairman of the executive committee of the California branch of the Bimetallic League. In his opening address he said that the silver question is the most important one before the people of the United States and that the delegates present had come together to discuss the subject for the benefit of their country.

"Among you," said Mr. Miller, "I observe farmers, merchants and men of every business, excepting banking. I do not expect any bankers here. On one side of this question are the producers of every class and on the other the bankers and bondholders. We silver men will speak at the next election. We are Democrats, Republicans, Populists, or whatever else we may be called, but all of us have one object in view—the restoration of silver to its proper position. We train with no political party; we ask no man whether he is a Democrat, Republican or Populist. All we ask is that he be a friend of silver, the money of the people and of a financial policy which shall benefit the workers and producers of the country.

"We will fight to a finish and never lay down our arms until silver is enthroned. It was degraded by an infamous conspiracy, and the work of that conspiracy must be undone. The press of the East has not treated the silver question in a proper spirit. It is controlled by Pierrepont Morgan, Rothschild, and the gold syndicate, our deadliest enemies. We can and will protect our financial policy from any three-ball concern of that character."

This address was received with much applause. Miss Phoebe Couzins, who was on the platform, joined in the cheers.

The question of allowing delegates from other states to vote came up and inquiry was made of Chairman Baker on the subject and he replied as follows:

"This is a new deal in politics and we are not bound by any technicalities."

The motion to extend all rights and privileges from other states was carried unanimously.

J. P. Idolf of Alameda was given a position on the committee of permanent organization.

Frank Moffitt of this city was appointed a member of the committee on platform and resolutions.

Speeches were made by D. W. McNeill of San Francisco, D. E. Alexander of Sacramento and C. C. Powning, and a number of others.

At the meeting of the committee on platform, Judge Gibson said he favored going slowly, and that before the convention adjourned they might consider the question of forming a new party.

COUNTY WORK.

Improvements and General Business Before the Supervisors.

At yesterday afternoon's session of the Supervisors the application for aid for Mrs. Mary Johnson, widow, residing at 617 Sixth street, was referred to Supervisor Church; that of Walter Young, aged 75 years, for railroad fare to Chico, was denied.

Supervisor Talcott was instructed to build a bridge over San Leandro creek, near Haywards at an expense not to exceed $180.

Claims for damages for road 2781 were allowed as follows: Mary Ives Crocker et al., $16.80; R. Hearn, $58.80; J. T. Getchell, $43.50; F. Caledewigh, $21.60; Mrs. Louise Davis, $2.50; James Brown, 20 cents; A. Brecht, $35.00; D. Garwente, $23.80; L. B. Coleman, $10.60. Total, $224.90.

The question of declaring Second avenue from Temescal avenue to Hudson street a county road was referred to the county surveyor.

The question of fees in the matter of the prosecution of F. E. Mitchell for chicken stealing occasioned a great deal of surprise because they were a great deal more than the value of the goods stolen. The matter will be investigated by the board.

The A. O. U. W. Meeting.

The "open meeting" for tomorrow evening under the auspices of Brooklyn Lodge, No. 3, A. O. U. W., will be held in Odd Fellows' hall, corner Twelfth street and Eleventh avenue, East Oakland, and not at Washington hall as erroneously stated in a postal card received by members of the order. An elaborate programme has been prepared for the occasion.

The "representative citizen" of Oakland has at last been stirred up over the contemptible methods of a rival of the Central Water Company. While competition is the life of trade, placed under the direction of such despicable beings it is a detriment to the community. Now that the water robbery has been denounced the common people may expect an innings.—Alameda Telegram.

FIX UP THE HIGHWAYS.

The Movement to Improve the Roads Should Be Indorsed by All.

The streets of Oakland and the roads of Alameda county are not the best in the State. There is no reason why they should not be the best. With an abundance of the most perfect of road material that is easily accessible to every part of the county and that can be placed on the roads at small expense, with abundance of water for sprinkling in summer and good drainage in winter, with easy grades for hauling produce and unsurpassed sites for scenic drives there is no good reason why this county should not be known throughout the world for its roads. That it is not so known is due to indifference of the citizens.

When the State Bureau of Highways visited this city and commented unfavorably on the condition of the roads the County Supervisors expressed the opinion that the roads of Alameda county were the best in the State. There are perhaps some others who hold the same opinion, but a little investigation would prove how erroneous the idea is. The purpose of the Good Roads Association is to remove this reproach. This is to be accomplished, not all at once, but a step at a time.

The first point at which the association aims is to improve the approaches to the city. Alameda, Berkeley and the eastern parts of the county are cut off from Oakland by almost impassible roads. The road across the marsh from Alameda is in a condition that renders it dangerous to drive over it. Twelfth street, across the dam and for several blocks beyond, is in an equally bad condition. Telegraph, San Pablo and Shattuck avenues and Adeline street are all in bad condition. These should be put in good condition, and the association is actively pushing to that end.

The work that is being done on the streets from time to time is often carelessly done. The foundation is not properly rolled, or the rock is too large in size, or the top dressing is not sufficient in quantity. The contractors are not dishonest, but they are simply human beings, and they naturally become careless and need watching. It is the duty of the city officials to perform this work of watching, and they are doing all they can. But there is more work than they can attend to thoroughly, and poor work is done upon the street and is accepted. The blame for this lies with the citizens who do not take the trouble to look after their own interests. One of the lines of work of the Association is to assist the city officials in this work of supervision, and to give the citizens an opportunity to assist themselves.

Another line of activity is to gather information regarding the best methods of road building and street repairing, and to spread this information in order that all may know whether they are getting the worth of their money when they pay for street work. Throughout the country this subject is being studied, and the best professional opinion is being gathered. Knowledge of the science of road building is becoming general, and the people are beginning to find out that it pays to know about these things. An improperly laid road will not last; the expense of repairs is far greater than the additional original cost of a good road, and the direct and indirect expense of driving over them amounts to a sum that would be surprising were it once figured out.

These are some of the general lines of activity that the association proposes for itself. Other opportunities for work will arise from time to time and the association will embrace them. Those who have heretofore been active are willing to continue in the work and to give their time freely. But something more is needed. Money is required at every step and this can be secured only by every person who favors good streets and a prosperous city, joining the association. Without this the work can not be accomplished. The prosperity of a city is not ensured by apathy on the part of the citizens.

Christian Healing.

At the meeting of Presbyterian clergymen in San Francisco yesterday "Faith Healing" was discussed. Rev. Campbell Coyle of the First Presbyterian church of this city said "Christian science is the counterfeit of the art of Divine healing, which has been lost to the church and taken up by the devil. If the patient has faith he can be cured without the use of drugs."
